

SEVENTH EDITION

E-Marketing

JUDY STRAUSS | RAYMOND FROST

This revision reflects the disruption to the marketing field based on social media. A major revision from the sixth edition, it includes many new topics, as dictated by changes in e-marketing practice in the past two years.

- Students get a broader look at social media as it is now integrated throughout the book, instead of being confined to one chapter.
- A look at new business models continues and strengthens the approach of learning from real-life examples. Added and described in detail are such models as social commerce (and Facebook commerce), mobile commerce and mobile marketing, social CRM, crowd sourcing, and many important but less pervasive models such as crowd funding, freemium, and flash sales.
- Chapters 12, 13 and 14 were completely rewritten to reflect the move from traditional marketing communication tools to the way practitioners currently describe IMC online: owned, paid and earned media.
- Readers will see examples of many new and interesting technologies that are today providing marketing opportunities, both in the Web 2.0 and 3.0 sections.
- The chapter-opening vignettes continue to play an important role in illustrating key points. Two new vignettes and new discussion questions about each chapter opening vignette are included.
- Five Indian case studies added to this edition.
