Yesterday's Melodies Today's Memories Manek Premchand,2018-12-27 Yesterday s Melodies Todays Memories is a rare collection of profiles of all important music makers of the Hindi Film Industry between 1931 and 1970 It not only gives a biographical background of each music artiste but it goes further to interview many of the surviving giants and completes the task by listing some of the best songs with which that person is associated Here are singers that include the whole gamut from KL Saigal to Asha Bhosle lyricists that include Sahir and Gulzar music composers from Naushad to RD Burman artistes that were part time singers and full time actors like Ashok Kumar melody queens like Noor Jahan and Lata Mangeshkar gentlemen lyricists like Prem Dhawan and gentlemen singers like Manna Dey mischief makers like Kishore Kumar and rebels without pause like OP Nayyar and Majrooh Sultanpuri In fact this book is a house in which all these great talents live happily each in a separate room given space for self expression The serious research that has gone into this book is evident as you move from one chapter to another opening layers after layers presented non seriously Over 100 music makers are presented this way and many more in a huge single chapter 100 Essential Indian Films Rohit K. Dasgupta,Sangeeta

Datta,2018-12-15 Although the motion picture industry in India is one of the oldest and largest in the world with literally thousands of productions released each year films from that country have not been as well received as those from other countries Known for their impressive musical numbers melodramatic plots and nationally beloved stars Indian films have long been ignored by the West but are now at the forefront of cinema studies With the prolific number of films available it can be difficult to know what to watch In 100 Essential Indian Films Rohit K Dasgupta and Sangeeta Datta identify and discuss significant works produced since the 1930s Examining the output of different regional film industries throughout

India this volume offers a balance of box office blockbusters critical successes and less recognized cult classics From early films by Satyajit Ray to contemporary classics such as Salaam Bombay and Lagaan each entry includes comprehensive details about the film and situates the work in the context and history of the Indian canon In addition to these notable productions this book also examines key film directors and the work of major film stars in the industry While many studies of Indian films focus on a single language s contributions this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive guide to productions from across the country in various languages including Hindi Bengali Tamil Malayalam Assamese Punjabi Marathi and English 100 Essential Indian Films is an engaging volume that will appeal to both cinema scholars and those looking for an introduction to a vital component of world cinema

Raavi Paar and Other Stories Gulzar,2006 The stories in Gulzar s first ever short collection in English have a distinct cameo quality reflected in each story s subject matter and narrative style The ingeniousness of this versatile writer finds expression in short narratives that vary from anecdotes to descriptions of states of mind Serious moving funny and ironic by turns the stories in this collection are replete with the perceptions of a man who has viewed the world with equanimity and compassion

Stories That Bind Madhavi Murty,2022-05-13 Stories that Bind Political Economy and Culture in New India examines the assertion of authoritarian nationalism and neoliberalism both backed by the authority of the state and argues that contemporary India should be understood as the intersection of the two More importantly the book reveals through its focus on India and its complex media landscape that this intersection has a narrative form which author Madhavi Murty labels spectacular realism The book shows that the intersection of neoliberalism with authoritarian nationalism is strengthened by the circulation of stories about emergence renewal development and mobility of the nation and its people It studies stories told through film journalism and popular non fiction along with the stories narrated by political and corporate leaders to argue that Hindu nationalism and neoliberalism are conjoined in popular culture and that consent for this political economic project is crucially won in the domain of popular culture Moving between mediascapes to create an archive of popular culture Murty advances our understanding of political economy through material that is often seen as inconsequential namely the popular cultural story These stories stoke our desires e g for wealth scaffold our instincts e g for a strong leadership and shape our values

Violence and Resistance in Sikh Gendered Identity Jaspal Kaur Singh,2020-04-30 This book examines the constructions and representations of male and female Sikhs in Indian and diasporic literature and culture through the consideration of the role of violence as constitutive of Sikh identity How do Sikh men and women construct empowering identities within the Indian nation state and in the diaspora The book explores Indian literature and culture to understand the role of violence and the feminization of baptized and turbaned Sikh men as well as identity formation of Sikh women who are either virtually erased from narratives bodily eliminated through honor killings or constructed and represented as invisible It looks at the role of violence during critical junctures in Sikh history including the Mughal rule the British colonial period the Partition of India the 1984 anti Sikh riots in

India and the terror of 9 11 in the United States The author analyzes how violence reconstitutes gender roles and sexuality within various cultural and national spaces in India and the diaspora She also highlights questions related to women s agency and their negotiation of traumatic memories for empowering identities The book will interest scholars researchers and students of postcolonial English literature contemporary Indian literature Sikh studies diaspora studies global studies gender and sexuality studies religious studies history sociology media and films studies cultural studies popular culture and South Asian studies Raavi Paar and Other Stories Gulazāra,1997 Serious Moving Funny And Ironic By Turns These Stories Are Replete With The Perceptions Of A Man Who Has Viewed The World With Equanimity And Compassion Indian
