Records, 2010-07 It's there in the dark waiting for me to move Jonah Ellis is a reclusive college student with mysterious nightmares that plague not only his unconscious mind but his life dark images of an evil that pursues Jonah and forces him to confront a past he would rather ignore When he meets Dr Ari Nowery a college lit professor who recognizes his battle within and Glorie a girl who is also hiding from the beast and has more in common with Jonah than she knows will he figure out the common thread between them Will he actually have to encounter the creature in his dreams Join Paul Records as he craftily uses the study of two popular pieces of American literature weaving them together with the lives of these characters in a way that readers won't soon forget Jonah's is a journey that God means for all to take a journey that reveals the Creature in all of us The Heath Anthology of American Literature Paul Lauter, 2006 Since its first edition The Heath Anthology of American Literature has enabled instructors to draw comparisons between classic authors and recently discovered writers American Exceptionalisms Sylvia Söderlind, James Taylor Carson, 2011-12-16 An incisive and wide ranging look at a powerful force and myth in American culture and history American Exceptionalisms reveals the centuries old persistence of the notion that the United States is an exceptional nation in being both an example to the world and exempt from the rules of international law Scholars from North America and Europe trace versions of the rhetoric of exceptionalism through a multitude of historical cultural and political phenomena from John Winthrop's vision of the city on a hill and the Salem witch trials in the seventeenth century to The Blair Witch Project and Oprah Winfrey's Child Predator Watch List in the twenty-first century. The first set of essays focus on constitutive historical moments in the development of the myth from early exploration narratives through political debates in the early republic to twentieth-century immigration debates. The latter essays address the role of exceptionalism in the war on terror and such cornerstones of modern popular culture such as the horror stories of H.P. Lovecraft, the songs of Steve Earle, and the Oprah Winfrey show. Sylvia S. Derlind is Associate Professor of English Language and Literature at Queen's University Kingston, Ontario, Canada. She is the author of Margin: Alias Language and Colonization in Canadian and Québécois Fiction (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 1991) and articles on American, Canadian, and Québécois fiction, ghostmodernity, and translation, and the politics of metaphor, published in, among others, Canadian Review of Comparative Literature, Ariel, Essays in Canadian Writing, Voix et images, RS: SI New Feminism Review, Japan ARTES, Sweden. James Taylor Carson is Professor of History and Associate Dean in the Faculty of Arts and Science at Queen's University Kingston, Ontario, Canada. His scholarship focuses on the ethnohistory of native peoples in the American South, and he has published two books on the subject: Searching for the Bright Path: The Mississippi Choctaws from Prehistory to Removal (Lincoln: University of Nebraska Press, 1999) and Making an Atlantic World: Circles, Paths, and Stories from the Colonial South (Knoxville: University of Tennessee Press, 2007). The Heath Anthology of American Literature: Colonial period to 1800 (Paul Lauter, Richard Yarborough, 2006). Since its first edition, The Heath Anthology of American Literature has enabled instructors to draw comparisons between classic authors and recently discovered writers. The Heath Anthology of American Literature, 1990.

The Heath Anthology of American Literature (Paul Lauter, Richard Yarborough, John Alberti, 2014). Unrivaled diversity and ease of use have made THE HEATH ANTHOLOGY OF AMERICAN LITERATURE VOLUME B: EARLY NINETEENTH CENTURY 1800-1865 7th Edition a best-selling text since 1989 when the first edition was published. In presenting a more inclusive canon of American literature, the seventh edition of Volume B continues to balance the traditional leading names in American literature with lesser-known writers. Available in five volumes for greater flexibility, the 7th Edition offers thematic groupings called In Focus to stimulate classroom discussions and showcase the treatment of important topics across the genres. Criticism after Critique (Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2014-09-04). Presenting different ways to imagine criticism without critique, this collection provides a survey of both the difficult times facing ideological critique and the ways in which literary criticism and aesthetics have been affected by changing attitudes toward critique. Heath Anthology of American Literature, Volume B (Paul Lauter, 2008). Digital Literary Redlining (Amy E. Earhart, 2025-06-24). Though canon concerns seem to be a relic of 1990s academia, we are once again at a historical moment when there is resistance to teaching texts by writers of color and texts that deal with race, ethnicity, and gender. At the same time, algorithmic bias: scholars are locating systemic bias encoded into systems from policing software to housing software. Bringing these divergent areas together, Amy

E Earhart examines how technological and institutional infrastructures construct and deconstruct race ethnicity and gender identities Focusing on two central infrastructures the database a commonly used technological infrastructure in the digital humanities and the anthology a scholarly and pedagogical infrastructure Earhart considers how such seemingly naturalized infrastructures impact the representation and modeling of identity The book draws upon the building and use of DALA a collection of almost 100 years of generalist American and African American literature anthologies constructed to investigate questions of identity and representation in literary anthologies and by extension the larger literary canon The resulting examination and its rigorous discussion of how identities are created and recreated within Black literary histories has important implications for contemporary cultural and political debates about canon formation literary scholarship and the bias embedded in technological infrastructures The Heath Anthology of American Literature: Volume a and Volume B Paul Lauter,2013-02 Canons by Consensus Joseph Csicsila,2004-08-17 Canons by Consensus is first systematic analysis of American literature textbooks used by college instructors in the last century The Heath Anthology of American Literature ,2006 Ornamenting the »Cold Roast« Dorothee Wagner von Hoff,2014-03-15 This book presents the meticulous case studies of three individual houses from different eras which serve to depict the social political and cultural effects that domestic architecture and interior design had on the upper class the city of Boston and a national American identity It takes the reader on a journey to 18th and 19th century Boston and provides insight into the lives of these prominent men and women as seen through the perspective of their homes It is a novel examination of the cultural significance of domestic architecture and interior design and because of its story telling character and extensive attention to detail it is fascinating for curious readers and cultural historians alike A New Book of the Grotesques Robert Dunne,2005 Sherwood Anderson remembered chiefly as a writer of short stories about life in the Midwest at the turn of the century was acknowledged as an innovator of the short story form This book looks at Anderson s early fiction from contemporary interpretative methodologies particularly from poststructuralist approaches The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang,2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945
