Phenomenology of Anxiety Stefano Micali, 2022-03-30 This volume offers a thorough description of anxiety from a phenomenological perspective Building on Bakhtin's insights the author develops the method of phenomenological polyphony which can do justice to the essential ambiguity of anxiety In this polyphony the voices of Kierkegaard Husserl Freud Blumenberg Heidegger Sartre Adorno Derrida and Levinas are particularly recognizable The book explores new perspectives on the complex relation between anxiety fear and trauma with reference to different disciplines from art history to cultural anthropology from psychopathology to theology from literature to political philosophy When is anxiety justified When does anxiety cease to function as an effective and reasonable signal preventing imminent threats and when does it become an invasive projection of our own ghosts This volume presents a deep philosophical inquiry into the affective phenomenon that can both protect us from danger and be a danger in itself Moreover the author explores the relevance of anxiety in the context of philosophical anthropology In various theoretical frameworks the difference between anxiety and fear serves as a criterion for distinguishing human beings from animals in particular Accordingly research on anxiety is crucial for defining human nature as such The analysis presented in this volume shows how an alteration of the dimensions of embodiment time consciousness and phantasy takes place in anxiety Furthermore the author elaborates on new categories for understanding of anxiety such as quasi intentional imaginative anticipation which eludes the traditional differentiation between perception and imagination The work culminates in a phenomenological analysis of five essential traits of anxiety 1 its quasi intentional imaginative anticipation 2 its negative inspiration 3 the recurrence of bodily manifestations 4 the interlocution with an alien power 5 its negative teleology New Statesman, 2006 Ontology Martin Heidegger, 1999 Ontology The Hermeneutics of Facticity first published in 1988 as volume 63 of Martin Heidegger's Collected Works is the first English translation of a lecture course given during his legendary early Freiburg period 1915-1923 Anticipating both the phenomenological hermeneutical analysis of factual Dasein in Being and Time 1927 and the poetic thinking in Heidegger's writings after 1930 the experimental theme of these renowned lecture course notes from the summer semester of 1923 is the being there of facticity in the awhileness of its temporal particularity The 33 year old Heidegger illustrates this theme with an ingenious interpretation of the table in his home and the activities of his young family around it Basic Writings from Being and Time (1927) to The Task of Thinking (1964) Martin Heidegger, 1977 This revised and expanded edition of Martin Heidegger's BASIC WRITINGS includes ten key essays plus the Introduction to BEING AND TIME An essential collection BASIC WRITINGS provides a concise introduction to the thought of this controversial and important 20th century philosopher Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved An inquiry into the question about truth and sense in the thinking of Heidegger and Aristotle Wilson George Brown, 1978 Heidegger - Human Being and Access to the Question of Being Jason D.
