The Comic English Grammar Percival Leigh,2024-01-28 A NEW AND FACETIOUS INTRODUCTION TO THE ENGLISH TONGUE By Percival Leigh Embellished with upwards of forty five Characteristic Illustrations By JOHN LEECH Fashion requires and like the rest of her sex requires because she requires that before a writer begins the business of his book he should give an account to the world of his reasons for producing it and therefore to avoid singularity we shall proceed with the statement of our own excepting only a few private ones which are neither here nor there To advance the interests of mankind by promoting the cause of Education to ameliorate the conversation of the masses to cultivate Taste and diffuse Refinement these are the objects we have in view in submitting a Comic English Grammar to the patronage of a discerning Public Few persons there are whose ears are so extremely obtuse as not to be frequently annoyed at the violations of Grammar by which they are so often assailed It is really painful to be forced in walking along the streets to hear such phrases as That ere omnibus Where ve you bin Vot s the odds and the like Very dreadful expressions are also used by cartmen and others in addressing their horses What can possibly induce a human being to say Gee woot Mather way or Woa not to mention the atrocious Kim aup of the barbarous butcher s boy It is notorious that the above and greater enormities are perpetrated in spite of the number of Grammars already before the world This fact sufficiently excuses the present addition to the stock and as serious English Grammars have hitherto failed to effect the desired reformation we are induced to attempt it by means of a Comic one With regard to the moral tendency of our labors we may be here permitted to remark that they will tend if successful to the suppression of evil speaking and as the Spartans used to exhibit a tipsy slave to their children with a view to disgust them with drunkenness and We will not allow a man to give an old woman a dose of

rhubarb if he have not acquired at least half a dozen sciences but we permit a quack to sell as much poison as he pleases When one man runs away with another's wife and being on that account challenged to fight a duel shoots the aggrieved party through the head the latter is said to receive satisfaction We never take a glass of wine at dinner without getting somebody else to do the same as if we wanted encouragement and then before we venture to drink we bow to each other across the table preserving all the while a most wonderful gravity This however it may be said is the natural result of endeavoring to keep one another in countenance The way in which we imitate foreign manners and customs is very amusing Savages stick fish bones through their noses our fair countrywomen have hoops of metal poked through their ears The Caribs flatten the forehead the Chinese compress the foot and we possess similar contrivances for reducing the figure of a young lady to a resemblance to an hour glass or a devil on two sticks There being no other assignable motive for these and the like proceedings it is reasonable to suppose that they are adopted as schoolboys say for fun We could go on were it necessary adducing facts to an almost unlimited extent but we consider that enough has now been said in proof of the comic character of the national mind And in conclusion if any other than an English or American author can be produced equal in point of wit humor and drollery to Swift Sterne Dickens or Paulding we hereby engage to eat him albeit we have no pretensions to the character of a helluo librorum English Grammar according to Lindley Murray is the art of speaking and writing the English language with propriety The English language written and spoken with propriety is commonly called the King's English
