High Rise Jg Ballard:

High-Rise: A Novel J. G. Ballard, 2012-04-16 Class war erupts in a luxurious high rise apartment building J.G. Ballard Peter Brigg, 1985-01-01 Peter Brigg examines the life and work of British author J G Ballard from his science fiction to his mainstream fiction Starmont Reader s Guide 26 J. G. Ballard D. Harlan Wilson, 2017-11-10 Prophetic short stories and apocalyptic novels like The Crystal World made J G Ballard a foundational figure in the British New Wave Rejecting the science fiction of rockets and aliens he explored an inner space of humanity informed by psychiatry and biology and shaped by surrealism Later in his career Ballard s combustible plots and violent imagery spurred controversy even legal action while his autobiographical 1984 war novel Empire of the Sun brought him fame D Harlan Wilson offers the first career spanning analysis of an author who helped steer SF in new if startling directions Here was a writer committed to moral ambiguity one who drowned the world and erected a London high rise doomed to descend into savagery and coolly picked apart the characters trapped within each story Wilson also examines Ballard s methods his influence on cyberpunk and the ways his fiction operates within the sphere of our larger culture and within SF itself J. G. Ballard, the First Twenty Years J. G. Ballard, 1976 J.G. Ballard Michel Delville, 1998 Michel Delville has produced in this volume the first book length study of J G Ballard s literary output and commentaries on contemporary culture High-Rise J. G. Ballard, 2016-05-13 The classic novel of luxury and depravity now a major motion picture From the author of the celebrated dystopian classics Kingdom Come The Drowned World and The Drought High Rise is a prescient story of class warfare The film adaptation by acclaimed director Ben Wheatley Sightseers Kill List features Academy Award winner Jeremy Irons BAFTA Award nominees Tom Hiddleston and Sienna Miller Luke Evans and Golden Globe Award winner Elisabeth Moss When explosive loyalties form inside a luxurious apartment block isolated from the rest of society modern elevators become fierce battlegrounds and cocktail parties degenerate into marauding attacks on enemy floors In this chilling tale humanity slips into violent reverse as once peaceful residents driven by primal urges re create a world ruled by the laws of the jungle Geographies of Memory and Postwar Urban Regeneration in British Literature Alina Cojocaru, 2022-05-13 This book proposes a new approach to the literary representations of London by means of correlating geocriticism spatial literary studies and memory studies in order to investigate the interplay between reality and fiction in mapping the urban imaginary It conducts an analysis of depictions of London in British literature published between 1975 and 2005 exploring the literary representations of the real urban restructurings prompted by the rebuilding projects in war and poverty stricken districts of London the remapping of the metropolis by immigrants gentrification and the displacement of communities as well as the urban dissolution caused by terrorism The selected works of fiction written by Peter Ackroyd Penelope Lively Zadie Smith Andrea Levy J G Ballard Michael Moorcock Doris Lessing and Ian McEwan provide a record of the city in times of de reconstruction emphasizing the structure of London as a palimpsest which becomes a central image The book contributes to the development of the subject field by introducing a number of original concepts which connect geocriticism and memory studies Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature Focus On: 100 Most Popular Films Based on British Novels Wikipedia contributors, New Forms of Space and Spatiality in Science Fiction Shawn Edrei, Chen F. Michaeli, Orin Posner, 2019-09-30 What kinds of worlds will exist in our future How will countries cities and homes be shaped by advanced technology What forms might we ourselves assume The genre of science fiction provides countless possibilities for imagining new types of spaces from utopias and dystopias to alien environments and to purely mechanical or mutant cityscapes This collection gathers together papers originally presented at the 2018 Science Fiction Symposium at Tel Aviv University a two day conference discussing new concepts of space in science fictional works Featuring a transmedia approach by contributors from around the world this volume discusses a wide and diverse array of issues in the ever expanding field of science fiction studies including capitalism equality revolution feminist critique and the humanity of the Other Psycho Too Will Self, 2013-12-05 Will Self and Ralph Steadman join forces once again in a further post millennial meditation on the vexed relationship of psyche and place in a globalised world Psycho Too brings together a second helping of their very best words and pictures from Psychogeography the columns they contributed to the Independent for half a decade The introduction Journey Through Britain is a new extended essay by Self accompanied by Steadman's inimitable images It tells of how Self journeyed to Dubai that Gtterdammerung of the contemporary built environment in order to walk the length of the artificial Britain shaped island in the offshore luxury housing development known as The World Ranging from Istanbul to Los Angeles and from the crumbling coastline of East Yorkshire to the adamantine heads of Easter Island Will Self's engaging and disturbing vision is once again perfectly counter pointed by Ralph Steadman's edgy and dazzling artwork Mountains and Megastructures Martin Beattie, Christos Kakalis, Matthew Ozga-Lawn, 2020-12-21 This book explores the shared qualities of mountains as naturally formed landscapes and of megastructures as manmade landscapes seeking to unravel how each can be understood as an open system of complex network relationships human natural and artificial By looking at mountains and megastructures in an interchangeable way the book negotiates the fixed boundaries of natural and artificial worlds to suggest a more complex relationship between landscape and architecture It suggests an ecological understanding of the interconnectedness of architecture and landscape and an entangled network of relations Urban colonialist fictional rural and historical landscapes are interwoven into this fabric that also involves discontinuities tensions and conflicts as parts of a system that is never linear but rather fluid and organic as driven by human endeavor Thatcher's Progress Guy Ortolano, 2019-06-27 Horizons Planning Architecture Community Consulting Housing The Social Imperative H. Koon Wee, 2021-07-21 This book contains multiple short critiques reflections and manifestos affording each contributing architect and intellectual the time and space to imagine new social paradigms in China Emerging from a tumultuous history of high culture and complex territorial conditions there is nothing straightforward about the social development of China The complexity of the social practices developed by architects and shapers of the built environment can be explained in part by the last three decades of an intensified adoption of the market economy by the Communist Party of China after an equally short three decades of closed door communist control There is no political meltdown like the democratization of the former Communist Bloc but there is a constant managing of discontent and resistance across China At the apex of the many creative and intellectual forces in China architects harbor and give form to many tactics of resistance Unfortunately architects are also the instruments and minds complicit with profit mongering developers and governments pursuing unchecked urbanization degradation of the environment exploitation of the marginalized and the creation of a very inequitable China This book begins with an introduction that defines the forms and tendencies of China's society as it stands today and it positions the work of a small number of architects and intellectuals who are at the forefront of reforming rethinking and even revolutionizing the Chinese society Beneath the veneer of a very successful China that the world readily acknowledges a quiet revolution is taking place within the realms of architecture and the city The social architectural and urban theories documented in this book are organized around the established canons of social actions from mobilizing laboring resisting and mediating to networking controlling rationalizing and aestheticizing This book aims to put the social agenda squarely back in the rapid development of the built environment in China This publication is the culmination of a three year study of social issues in the architecture and cities of China It involved visits to sites undergoing massive change discussions and debates among architects and critics reflections by practitioners about their own work and activists lobbying for social change Supported by the non profit AA Asia the edition of the contents relied heavily on original input and exchanges between architects and theorists committed to China from Asia and beyond Since the 1990s AA Asia remains one of a few unique think tanks committed to the study of architecture and cities in Asia As an advocacy with strong academic roots it seeks to establish the differences across various postcolonial and Asian contexts and recalibrate the role of architecture in a technocratic era dominated by the global economy With Contributions of Robert Adams Lee Ambrozy Yung Ho Chang Chen Ling Jeremy Chia Cui Kai Dong Gong Dong Yugan Mario Gandelonas Han Tao Andrei Harwell He Jianxiang Hu Yan Hua Li Huang Weiwen Huang Wenjing Jiang Jun Jeffrey Johnson Michael Kokora Kengo Kuma Andrew Lee Joan Leung Lye Li Han Li Hu Li Shiqiao Nartano Lim William S W Lim Liu Jiakun Liu Kecheng Liu Yichun Long Ying Ma Qingyun Robert Mangurian Meng Yan Ou Ning Alan Plattus Mary Ann Ray Daan Roggeveen Ruan Hao Eunice Seng Shi Jian Victor Su Sun Yimin Wang Fei Wang Shu Wang Yan H Koon Wee Shirley Woo Wu Gang Wu Liangyong Xu Tiantian Rocco Yim Yu Kongjian Zhang Ke Zhao Liang Zhou Yi Zhu Tao Zhu

High-rise J. G. Ballard, 1975 Modernism in the Metrocolony Caitlin Vandertop, 2020-11-26 Compares twentieth century literature from a network of British colonial cities tracing a new peripheral history of urban modernism

Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020-03-12 Reconstructing Modernism establishes for the first time the centrality of modernist buildings and architectural periodicals to British mid century literature Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself While the city has long been a focus of literary modernist studies architectural modernism has never had its due Scholars usually characterize architectural modernism as a parallel modernism or even an incompatible modernism to literature Giving special attention to dystopian classics Brave New World and Nineteen Eighty Four this study argues that sustained attention to modern architecture shaped mid century authors political and aesthetic commitments After many writers deemed modernist architects to be agents for communism and other collectivist movements they squared themselves and literary modernist detachment and aesthetic autonomy against the seemingly tyrannical utopianism of modern architecture literary aesthetic qualities were reclaimed as political qualities In this way Reconstructing Modernism redraws the boundaries of literary modernist studies rather than simply adding to its canon it argues that the responsibility for defining literary modernism for the mid century public was shared by an incredible variety of authors Edwardians modernists satirists and even anti modernists
