Holy Places Jewish Christian Muslim M:

Contested Holy Places in Israel-Palestine Yitzhak Reiter, 2017-04-07 Religious leaders and political actors often use holy places to rally citizens to protect or liberate national territory as hallowed land The Holy Land Palestine or Eretz Israel is the most obvious case of the process of religionizing ethnic national and territorial conflicts This book analyzes fourteen case studies of conflicts over holy sites in the Holy Land each representing a particular archetype of conflict It seeks to understand the many facets of disputes and the triggers for the outbreak of violence in and around such sites It also analyses the effectiveness of the conflict mitigation and resolution tools used for dealing with such disputes The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion Jews, Christians, Muslims John Corrigan, Frederick Denny, Martin S Jaffee, Carlos Eire, 2016-01-08 Thematic examination of monotheistic religions The second edition of Jews Christians Muslims A Comparative Introduction to Monotheistic Religions compares Judaism Christianity and Islam using seven common themes which are equally relevant to each tradition Provoking critical thinking this text addresses the cultural framework of religious meanings and explores the similarities and differences among Judaism Christianity and Islam as it explains the ongoing process of interpretation in each religion The book is designed for courses in Western and World Religions Tourism and Religion Richard Butler, Wantanee Suntikul, 2018-01-30 This book examines both specific issues and more general problems stemming from the interaction of religion travel and tourism with hospitality and culture as well as the implications for site management and interpretation It explores the oldest form of religious tourism pilgrimage from its original form to the multiple spiritual and secular variations practised today along with issues and conflicts arising from the collision of religion politics and tourism The volume considers the impact of tourism and tourist numbers on religious features communities and phenomena including the deliberate involvement of some religious agencies in tourism It also addresses the ways in which religious beliefs and philosophies affect the behaviour and perceptions of tourists as well as hosts The book illustrates how different faiths interact with tourism and the issues of catering for religious tourists of the major faiths as well as managing the interaction between increasing numbers of secular tourists and pilgrims at religious sites

The Oxford Illustrated History of the Holy Land Robert G. Hoyland, H. G. M. Williamson, 2018-09-06 The Oxford Illustrated History of the Holy Land covers the 3 000 years which saw the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam and relates the familiar stories of the sacred texts with the fruits of modern scholarship Beginning with the origins of the people who became the Israel of the Bible it follows the course of the ensuing millennia down to the time when the Ottoman Empire succumbed to British and French rule at the end of the First World War Parts of the story especially as known from the Bible will be widely familiar Less familiar are the ways in which modern research both from archaeology and from other ancient sources sometimes modify this story historically Better understanding however enables us to appreciate crucial chapters in the story of the Holy Land such as how and why Judaism developed in the way that it did from the earlier sovereign states of Israel and Judah and the historical circumstances in which Christianity emerged from its Jewish cradle Later parts of the story are vital not only for the history of Islam and its relationships with the two older religions but also for the development of pilgrimage and religious tourism as well as the notions of sacred space and of holy books with which we are still familiar today From the time of Napoleon on European powers came increasingly to develop both cultural and political interest in the region culminating in the British and French conquests which carved out the modern states of the Middle East Sensitive to the concerns of those for whom the sacred books of Judaism Christianity and Islam are of paramount religious authority the authors all try sympathetically to show how historical information from other sources as well as scholarly study of the texts themselves enriches our understanding of the history of the region and its prominent position in the world's cultural and intellectual history

The Oxford History of the Holy Land Robert G. Hoyland, H. G. M. Williamson, 2023 The story of the Holy Land encompassing the three millennia that saw the birth of Judaism Christianity and Islam Each chapter is written by a leading scholar
