as a longer distance for the elderly to travel to use social service centers a narrower range of available services in the local area increased poverty levels for the elderly a stronger dependency by elderly on family rather than public assistance This book is divided into five sections Rurality and Aging introduces the concept of rurality and examines the demographics of aging from a rural perspective Practice Dimensions of Social Work with Rural Elders includes clinical practice models intervention and advocacy techniques program planning and marketing approaches Special Populations gives attention to four special population groups indigenous elders African American older adults elderly Latinos and disabled elders Special Issues Pertaining to Rural Elders covers five essential issues for rural gerontological social workers health promotion older workers and retirement preparation aging in place specialized housing and ethical practice Training and Policy Recommendations future training and education recommendations for social workers are explored as well as service capacity building the aging network and the future of long term care While a variety of theoretical perspectives are explored in Gerontological Social Work in Rural Towns and Communities the book s empowerment orientation and strengths based approach will enhance your abilities to improve quality of life for elderly individuals in rural communities Each chapter contains a comprehensive review of the literature on the subject it addresses and several chapters include tables and graphs to further establish their revealing empirical findings An appendix provides additional sources to turn to for more information

CMSA Core Curriculum for Case Management, 2008 This text contains the core body of knowledge for case management practice as delineated by the Case Management Society of America CMSA the largest professional organization of case managers The core curriculum provides a synthesis of case management evolution and presents essential elements concepts and vision for current and future case management practice This edition is significantly expanded to reflect the dynamic changes taking place in case management Each chapter is organized in a consistent format that includes learning objectives introduction important terms and concepts key definitions and references Community Resources for Older Adults Robbyn R. Wacker, Karen A. Roberto, 2013-03-14 This text is intended for courses on community services and programmes for the elderly typically found in gerontology departments and departments of social work Rather than simply focusing on building awareness of the various programmes and services available the authors stress the importance of the theoretical knowledge that will assist in understanding the social and psychological dynamics of help seeking behaviour By understanding the social and psychological needs of the elderly and their families as well as the services available to them students will be better able to take advantage of resources available to help their clients This new edition will update the key policy updates affecting older adults as well as the census data offered throughout the text It will also update the many unique pedagogical features such as the sections titled FYI best practices case studies and the web and national resources Increased attention will be focused on aging and diverse populations and the idea of cultural competency than previous editions as this area has continued to become a critical part of delivering effective care Also international issues faith based services services for

LGBT elders rural elders immigrants and other special populations will also be covered or expanded in the new edition

Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume's 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today
