How NOT to Get Published Claire Gillman, 2013-09-27 There are many brilliant books out there which have not been published because their author has not been able to successfully navigate the minefield that is finding a publisher In many cases authors make basic mistakes in their submissions which ensure that they do not even get read by the correct person Even if they do reach someone with decision making power they often fail to clearly explain the proposition of their book or the target market Claire Gilman is the perfect person to help you find a publisher for your manuscript She has done it successfully having had twenty of her own books published She has spoken to many commissioning editors and agents about what they look for and look to avoid in a submission And she has worked as a literary consultant helping all sorts of authors to improve their proposals Now she combines all this wisdom into one book explaining clearly 50 common mistakes which authors make and how you can avoid them and ensure that your work receives the attention and the publisher that it deserves Media Today Joseph

Turow,2008-09-25 Media Today puts students at the center of profound changes in the twenty first century media world from digital convergence to media ownership and gives them the skills to think critically about what these changes mean for the role of media in their lives A Nasty Dose of the Yawns: An Adventure with Dyslexia and Literacy Difficulties Plum

Hutton,2022-05-11 Zack has always found school difficult Even though he is good at maths and excellent at flicking elastic bands trying to read and write is like trying to fight a kraken One day when he discovers the rest of his class infected by a mysterious sleeping sickness Zack draws on his strengths resulting in some unexpected consequences This engaging story suitable for readers aged 8 12 explores some of the challenges faced by learners who find literacy unusually difficult

Alongside the practical difficulties of living in a world that assumes good levels of literacy it explores some of the psychological impacts of struggling to achieve a skill that most children acquire with relative ease Ultimately it shows children that they can draw on their strengths and overcome the challenges in their way Also available as a set with a supporting guide this book operates as a fun and entertaining standalone story as well as an educational opportunity The range of vocabulary means it can be used flexibly for independent paired or whole group reading It is a must have book for every classroom Streaming, Sharing, Stealing Michael D. Smith,Rahul Telang,2017-08-25

How big data is transforming the creative industries and how those industries can use lessons from Netflix Amazon and Apple to fight back The authors explain gently yet firmly exactly how the internet threatens established ways and what can and cannot be done about it Their book should be required for anyone who wishes to believe that nothing much has changed The Wall Street Journal Packed with examples from the nimble footed who reacted quickly to adapt their businesses to laggards who lost empires Financial Times Traditional network television programming has always followed the same script executives approve a pilot order a trial number of episodes and broadcast them expecting viewers to watch a given show on their television sets at the same time every week But then came Netflix s House of Cards Netflix gauged the show s potential from data it had gathered about subscribers preferences ordered two seasons without seeing a pilot and uploaded the first thirteen episodes all at once for viewers to watch whenever they wanted on the devices of their choice In this book Michael Smith and Rahul Telang experts on entertainment analytics show how the success of House of Cards upended the film and TV industries and how companies like Amazon and Apple are changing the rules in other entertainment industries notably publishing and music We re living through a period of unprecedented technological disruption in the entertainment industries Just about everything is affected pricing production distribution piracy Smith and Telang discuss niche products and the long tail product differentiation price discrimination and incentives for users not to steal content To survive and succeed businesses have to adapt rapidly and creatively Smith and Telang explain how How can companies discover who their customers are what they want and how much they are willing to pay for it Data The entertainment industries must learn to play a little moneyball The bottom line follow the data
