Designing Effective Organizations David K. Banner, T. Elaine Gagné, 1995 Takes a holistic approach that is often lost in more narrow minded texts Great for graduate students Robert Kramer Department of Management Science George Washington University With its distinctive voice this is a basic text for all courses on organizational theory

BUSINESS HORIZONS This book presents an avant garde approach to an important topic about which to my way of thinking no one else has written even a contemporary book The authors perspective readily allows the reader to comprehend and appreciate what is always present often hidden and almost always controversial the subjective side of organizational life The book you are about to read provides the rationalist and the veteran exactly what they each crave the most It provides synthesis and order within a structure that acknowledges the interaction between an individual s motivations and needs and the apparent order that individual perceives The use of cartoons and other right brain highlighters allow readers to look down as opposed to looking up to understand and critique a phenomenon that a theory purports to explain and to self reflect on the importance a theory holds for the field Certainly this is a book for the 1990s from the Foreword by Samuel A Culbert John E Anderson Graduate School of Management University of California Los Angeles What the authors are attempting is very difficult David K Banner and T Elaine Gagn are declaring the presence of a new paradigm of the organization before it has actually crystallized and become part of the mainstream of organization theory As such the book is an act of leadership Peter B Vaill Professor of Human Systems School of Business and Public Management The George Washington University A valuable resource to the students and instructors of organizational design and theory courses The comprehensive coverage of traditional organization theory topics coupled with the authors contemporary orientation and transformational perspective ensure this The organizational design and theory text by Banner and Gagn addresses an important fact of organizational life that is usually ignored or given superficial treatment at best in existing organization theory texts namely that our implicit assumptions worldviews metaphors paradigms and organizational culture are important determinants of why we organize the way we do Douglas Austrom President and Cofounder Turning Point Associates Indianapolis Indiana A valuable basic text for business related undergraduate or postgraduate programmes on organization theory and practice particularly from a transformational perspectives

LONG RANGE PLANNING Providing a distinctive voice Designing Effective Organizations is the new basic text for the undergraduate or MBA level course on organization theory Although it contains the same comprehensive topical coverage as the leading traditional organization theory texts Designing Effective Organizations is definitely not a clone of the others in the field David K Banner and T Elaine Gagn develop a transformational perspective which sees the world of the organization as a projection of each organizational member s consciousness as opposed to the traditional rational perspective They thoroughly cover all the basics but in a manner that reflects today s changing management paradigms Designing Effective Organizations is the perfect text for scholars researchers professionals and graduate and undergraduate students in organization studies management sociology public administration and education backdrop of the seven life stages of recurrent development 1 in the context of her Faith walk The transparency is refreshing when in my reading I found that generally speaking clergies have a hard time sharing openly their life experiences Wilson in her book encourages pastors ministers and clergies to come clean as we live and preach and teach in our respective contexts By the storytelling of her life and faith development she has given the reader a glimpse of her faith and relationship with Jesus Christ and how this relates to family friends community and ministry interaction with other people thus allowing the reader to face life with hope I would recommend anyone entering a ministry in any context to read this book in order to gain an appreciation of what shapes a ministry and some ways of processing our lived experiences and forgiving ourselves for our sins and shortcomings Thank you Barbara for giving us your readers insights from a distance in the Making of a Pastor Chaplain 1 Robert Kegan The Evolving Self Problem and Process in Human Development Phillip J Robillard Minister of Faith Community in downtown Toronto Ontario Sometimes we may take the events of our lives for granted and we may be lulled into leaving well enough alone even though deep down we have a sense that something is missing or not quite right At other times we may thirst for a greater depth of meaning in what we are about As we examine our lives we may become more aware of experiences good or bad associated with past present or foreseen events What we may be less aware of in the moment is the part we can play in shaping our personal experience of whatever takes place into a more satisfying life journey This book illustrates how the author Barbara Wilson reflected deeply on pivotal life events which if left unexamined would have diminished greatly the personal meaning she was able to harvest in her journey through life She believed in and exercised her inner capacity to move beyond the erstwhile story line of the world into which she was born by re visioning and re shaping experienced events into a living story with satisfactory space both for personal meaning making and for enabling her to live her preferred values Her candid reflection on events in her life many of them painful others full of joy as well as her insightful evaluations of these stepping stones and her courageous choices for new directions will inspire and motivate many to take a second look at how they too can answer for themselves the pivotal questions Am I satisfied with my life experience Who do I want to be now Who do I want to become How do I reshap
