HELIODORUS,2018 The Aethiopica Heliodoros (of Emesa.),1897 Heliodoros - The Aethiopica Heliodoros,1897 This translation of the ancient Greek novel Aethiopica by Heliodoros was produced in 1897 by the scholars of antiquity belonging to the Athenian Society in Athens For many centuries this novel was very obscure to readers in Western Europe However copies had always circulated around the Byzantine Empire and it was during the Renaissance in the 14th century that burgeoning interest in classical Greece led to the Aethiopica being recognized and read by Western European scholars Various translations occurred through subsequent centuries this translation to English was brought to fruition by academics of classics based in Athens in the late 19th century We are introduced to Chariclea who was born to King Hydaspes and Queen Persinna of ancient Ethiopia The girl is said to have been conceived when her mother fixed eyes upon a marble statue a point crucial to the story later on The young woman is romanced by Theagenes a man of nobility from the northerly lands of Thessaly and in eloping the pair endures many dangerous encounters with wild creatures and roaming bandits Together with the translated text we find a scholarly introduction which explains the historical significance of this work Heliodoros Athenian Society Heliodoros,2015-07-16 Excerpt from Heliodoros The Aethiopica Greece and Rome that the romance of love and adventure must be looked for We can observe the remote origin of writings of this kind during the Attic period we can follow its obscure development in the Alexandrine period but it is not until the Roman period that its growth and perfection become perceptible About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find
