Holding Man Tommy Murphy:

Holding the Man Tommy Murphy, Timothy Conigrave, 2024 Holding the Man is based on Timothy Conigrave's celebrated memoir of the same name which won the 1995 UN Human Rights Award for Non Fiction and was voted one of Australia's top 100 favourite books. Tommy Murphy's stage adaptation faithfully captures the book's heart wrenchingly honest portrayal of a fifteen year relationship but also succeeds in transforming it into a unique theatrical experience that is wholly his own. The play won multiple awards and had seasons across Australia and internationally. Theater in a Post-Truth World William C. Boles, 2022-06-30 This is the first book to examine how the concept and disagreements around post truth have been explored in the world of theater and performance. It covers a wide spectrum of manifestations and expressions from the plays of Caryl Churchill, Anne Washburn and David Henry Hwang to the inherent theatricality of press conferences, FBI interviews and protests that embrace the confusion created by post truth rhetoric to muddy issues and deflect blame to theatrical performance where the nature of truth is challenged through staged visuals which run counter to what the audience hears, provoking a debate about where the truth actually lies. With contributions by scholars from around the world, Theater in a Post Truth World considers a wide array of examples from American and British drama and politics, Australian theater and the work of performance artist Marina Abramovic. Together these provide a glimpse into how the theater in its many forms provides a venue to raise awareness and encourage critical thinking about the contemporary ubiquity of post truth.

Viral Dramaturgies Alyson Campbell, Dirk Gindt, 2018-03-20 This book analyses the impact of HIV and AIDS on performance in the twenty first century from an international perspective. It marks a necessary reaffirmation of the productive power of performance to respond to a public and political health crisis and act as a mode of resistance to cultural amnesia, discrimination and stigmatisation. It sets out a number of challenges and contexts for HIV and AIDS performance in the twenty first century, including the financial interests of the pharmaceutical industry, the unequal access to treatment and prevention technologies in the Global North and Global South, the problematic division between dominant white gay urban cis male and marginalised narratives of HIV, the tension between a damaging cultural amnesia and a potentially equally damaging partner AIDS nostalgia, the criminalisation of HIV non disclosure and sustaining and sustained by all of these, the ongoing stigmatisation of people living with HIV. This collection presents work from a vast range of contexts grouped around four main areas: women's voices and experiences, generations, memories and temporalities, international narratives and artistic and personal reflections and interventions.

Mediating Memory Bunty Avieson, Fiona Giles, Sue Joseph, 2017-10-16 The argument has been made that memoir reflects and augments the narcissistic tendencies of our neo liberal age. The Literature of Remembering: Tracing the Limits of Memoir challenges and dismantles that assumption. Focusing on the history, theory and practice of memoir writing, editors Bunty Avieson, Fiona Giles and Sue Joseph provide a thorough and cutting edge examination of memoir through the lenses of ethics, practice and innovation. By investigating memoir across cultural boundaries in its various guises and tracing its limits the editors convincingly demonstrate the plurality of ways in which memoir is helping us make sense of who we are who we were and the influences that shape us along the way
