Judaic, Christian, and Islamic History Robert Bruce Brown,1997 Holy War, Martyrdom, and Terror Philippe Buc,2019 Holy War Martyrdom and Terror examines the ways that Christian theology has shaped centuries of conflict from the Jewish Roman War of late antiquity through the First Crusade the French Revolution and up to the Iraq War By isolating one factor among the many forces that converge in war the essential tenets of Christian theology Philippe Buc locates continuities in major episodes of violence perpetrated over the course of two millennia Even in secularized or explicitly non Christian societies such as the Soviet Union of the Stalinist purges social and political projects are tied to religious violence and religious conceptual structures have influenced the ways violence is imagined inhibited perceived and perpetrated The patterns that emerge from this sweeping history upend commonplace assumptions about historical violence while contextualizing and explaining some of its peculiarities Buc addresses the culturally sanctioned logic that might lead a sane person to kill or die on principle traces the circuitous reasoning that permits contradictory political actions such as coercing freedom or pardoning war atrocities and locates religious faith at the backbone of nationalist conflict He reflects on the contemporary American ideology of war one that wages violence in the name of abstract notions such as liberty and world peace and that he reveals to be deeply rooted in biblical notions A work of extraordinary breadth Holy War Martyrdom and Terror connects the ancient past to the troubled present showing how religious ideals of sacrifice and purification made
