Through a Land of Extremes Nicholas Clinch,Elizabeth Clinch,2011-06-03 Teresa and St George Littledale were an unlikely British couple who explored Central Asia in the 1890s with their fox terrier The Littledale s were very well known in their time for their extensive travels and exceptional adventures but have been almost completely forgotten this is the first book about their fascinating story St George Littledale received the Patron s Medal from the Royal Geographical Society but Teresa was overlooked For thirty years St George Littledale and his wife Teresa mounted expeditions in North America and Asia Through a Land of Extremes gives a taste for a bygone time of travel into uncharted unknown territory when adventurers lived by a combination of wit charm and luck Of independent means the Littledales began in the American Rockies Yellowstone and Alaska These trips were followed by expeditions in the late 1880s in the Caucasus the Pamirs Russian Central Asia and Mongolia Their greatest exploit was a 14 month journey to Tibet in 1895 They were attempting to reach the Forbidden City of Lhasa the great unmet goal of Central Asian explorers In order to minimize their chances of being discovered before they neared their goal St George selected a route across the desolate uninhabited Tibetan Plateau At a 19 000 foot pass they were finally blocked by 150 armed Tibetans The Tibetans allowed them to continue over the pass to a suitable stopping place The Littledales had come within 49 miles of Lhasa closer than any other foreigners since 1846 This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more Handbook on Tourism Planning Philip F. Understanding Young Chinese Backpackers Jia Xie, 2021-07-26 An activity that originated in Western societies backpacking has gained increasing popularity among Chinese millennials In a spirit of the search for self young Chinese backpackers have sought to display their pursuit of freedom independence and responsibility within an increasingly individualised society through backpacking This volume investigates contemporary young Chinese persons views on backpacking culture and backpackers A group of Chinese backpackers are studied using interview and participant observation and focus groups are conducted to study young professionals and university students attitudes towards backpacking The results indicate a profound cultural change along with a degree of division On the one hand the backpackers often begin their journey due to a desire to pursue freedom and use the pursuit as a process of reflexive awareness on the other hand the risks of pursuing a freewheeling lifestyle within an individualised society drive the majority of them to return home The author concludes that this phenomenon is a kind of staged individualism describing how Chinese millennials strike a balance between individual interests and wider social obligations Students and scholars of sociology tourism and youth culture will be interested in this volume

Imperial Designs Deepak Tripathi, 2013-04-30 Since the age of Alexander the Great waves of foreign armies have invaded the Middle East and South Asia to plunder their vast treasures In Imperial Designs Deepak Tripathi offers a powerful and unique analysis of how this volatile region has endured the manipulation and humiliation of war especially since World War I and the fall of the Ottoman Empire He argues that these foreign invasions and the consequent ignominy of the defeated peoples of the regions have had far reaching consequences Over the centuries again and again the conquered peoples have been left helpless their shame on display The victims collective frustration has strengthened their will to resist and avenge the wrongs done to them all according to their own values and in their own time Displaying a keen awareness of Middle Eastern and South Asian cultures Tripathi argues that this enduring theme resonates throughout the region's history and informs the present Referring to declassified official documents and scholarly works this book should be read by scholars policymakers and concerned citizens for it tells us how the shame of defeat radicalizes nations and societies and often makes future conflict inevitable

Raj Rhapsodies: Tourism, Heritage and the Seduction of History Maxine Weisgrau, Carol Henderson, 2016-03-23 Heritage is a prized cultural commodity in the marketing of tourism destinations Particular aspects of heritage are often more actively promoted with others played down The representation of heritage in tourism as static and timeless derived since time immemorial from a distant past is seductive In Asia a major part of the tourism market lies in the sale and consumption of highly orientalized images and versions of culture and history In India s marketing discourse the state of Rajasthan symbolizes the nation in its heritage laden traditional and most authentic form These images draw heavily on the British period in India the Raj In one sense this vision of Rajasthan is ennobling highlighting moments of cultural pride In another sense it demeans by omitting and obscuring salient features of contemporary life This fascinating book explores the cultural politics of tourism through interdisciplinary perspectives Carol E Henderson and Maxine Weisgrau demonstrate that tourism heritage privileges elite histories that recapitulate colonial relationships compelling non elites to collude in these narratives of subordination even as they advance their own alternative visions of history Vernacular Politics in Northeast India Jelle J. P. Wouters,2022

Nowhere in India is contemporary politics and visions of the political as diverse animated uncontainable and poorly understood as in Northeast India Approaching politics in the vernacular this book thinks itself afresh into the region s political life Examining Tourist Behaviors and Community Involvement in Destination Rejuvenation Tyagi, Pankaj Kumar,Nadda, Vipin,Kankaew, Kannapat,Dube, Kaitano,2024-06-03 The tourism and hospitality industry faces a significant sustainability challenge Traditional practices prioritize short term gains over long term environmental and social well being leading to detrimental impacts on local communities cultural heritage and the natural environment The industry s rapid growth and increasing demand for travel experiences worsen this unsustainable approach Therefore there is an urgent need for a paradigm shift towards regenerative practices that minimize negative impacts and actively contribute to the restoration and revitalization of destinations and communities Examining Tourist Behaviors and Community Involvement in Destination Rejuvenation presents a timely and comprehensive solution to this pressing challenge By exploring regenerative practices the book offers a roadmap for industry stakeholders to transition towards sustainable models that prioritize environmental stewardship cultural preservation and community empowerment Through a rich tapestry of theoretical insights practical guidelines and real world case studies the book equips academics industry professionals policymakers and advocates with the tools and knowledge needed to transform the tourism and hospitality landscape Global Trade in the Early Medieval World Toslima Khatun,2025-02-18 Exploring the movement of peoples perfumes and spices across vast distances in this period of medieval history across Asia the Middle East and Europe this book examines the role of Arab merchants in trade between and among the Caliphal and Carolingian elites The study of the trade in perfumes and spices highlights the relationship between the South Asian subcontinent and the Caliphate It is shown that the societies involved in this intercontinental maritime trade intermingled through the demand for goods and products which allowed for the transmission of ideas and learning Crucially the Eurasian end of these trading routes were tapping into pre existing networks of trade as there is evidence that there were links of trade between East Asia and the near and Middle East as early as the seventh century B H first century A D Thus the book challenges the Eurocentric worldview which fails to take into account that the Europeans in the late medieval period came into a pre existing trading network This book will be of interest to readers in economic history as well as the history of trade globalisation South Asia the Middle East and the Medieval world
