The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch,2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry s continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities Poetry Prose n' Trainwrecks Jackson Berry,2024-08-20 This is a collection of eclectic poetry n prose of author s observations and personal history This author has deep thoughts and insights on varied subjects but also has a whimsical side too September Love Lang Leav,2020 Beautifully composed and written by international bestselling author Lang Leav this new collection of poetry and prose will positively influence your life September Love captures the magic of each passing season a pearl of wisdom waiting to be discovered with every page turned A book that will inspire you to reach for the stars
