Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren,Julian Agyeman,2015-12-04 How cities can build on the sharing economy and smart technology to deliver a sharing paradigm that supports justice solidarity and sustainability The future of humanity is urban and the nature of urban space enables and necessitates sharing of resources goods and services experiences Yet traditional forms of sharing have been undermined in modern cities by social fragmentation and commercialization of the public realm In Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren and Julian Agyeman argue that the intersection of cities highly networked physical space with new digital

Patricia C. Franks,2018-08-13 This book's authoritative blend of theory and practice makes it a matchless resource for everyone in the archives and records management field

Ireland's 1916 Rising Mark McCarthy,2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland's 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising's undeniable influence upon modern Ireland's evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire's foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland's 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising's commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising's 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance

Economics of Collaboration in Performance Karen Savage,Dominic Symonds,2018-07-25 This is a book about collaboration in the arts which explores how working together seems to achieve more than the sum of the parts It introduces ideas from economics to conceptualize notions of externalities complementarity and emergence and playfully explores collaborative structures such as the swarm the crowd the flock and the network It uses up to date thinking about Wikinomics Postcapitalism and Biopolitics underpinned by ideas from Foucault Bourriaud and Hardt and Negri In a series of thought provoking case studies the authors consider creative practices in theatre music and film They explore work by artists such as Gob Squad Eric Whitacre Dries Verhoeven Pete Wyer and Tino Seghal and encounter both live and online collaborative possibilities in fascinating discussions of Craigslist and crowdfunding at the Edinburgh Festival What is revealed is that the introduction of Web 2.0 has enabled a new paradigm of artistic practice to emerge in which participatory encounters collaboration and online dialogue become key creative drivers Written itself as a collaborative project between Karen Savage and Dominic Symonds this is a strikingly original take on the economics of working together

Vertigo Andrew Keen, 2012-05-22 Digital Vertigo provides an articulate measured contrarian voice against a sea of hype about social media As an avowed technology optimist I'm grateful for Keen who makes me stop and think before committing myself fully to the social revolution Larry Downes author of The Killer App In Digital Vertigo Andrew Keen presents today's social media revolution as the most wrenching cultural transformation since the Industrial Revolution Fusing a fast paced historical narrative with front line stories from today's online networking revolution and critiques of social companies like Groupon Zynga and LinkedIn Keen argues that the social media transformation is weakening disorienting and dividing us rather than establishing the dawn of a new egalitarian and communal age The tragic paradox of life in the social media age Keen says is the incompatibility between our internet longings for community and friendship and our equally powerful desire for online individual freedom By exposing the shallow core of social networks Andrew Keen shows us that the more electronically connected we become the lonelier and less powerful we seem to be
