Friendship and Faith: Cistercian Men, Women, and Their Stories, 1100-1250 Brian Patrick McGuire, 2024-10-28 In these articles Professor McGuire explores the riches of the Cistercian exemplum tradition. These texts are made up of brief stories often with a miraculous content which provided moral support for novices and monks in Cistercian abbeys all over Europe in the High Middle Ages. The Cistercians have been seen mainly in terms of their great writers like Bernard of Clairvaux and the impressive buildings they left behind. But Cistercian literature also provides us with more humble insights from daily life, shedding light on questions of sexuality, anger, depression, and bonds of friendship also between monks and nuns. They bring a freshness of insight and immediate experience, and their seeming naivety lets us be aware of monks' commitment to each other in individual and community bonds. In Cistercian storytelling, the Gospel's message meets an historical context and bears witness to a transformation of Christian life and idealism while at the same time allowing us precious insights into how ordinary men and women, not just monks and nuns, lived and thought.

Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images, documentary films, and photographic texts. It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre-revolutionary Cuba, the dream of revolution, and the metaphor of the city frozen in time. The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand-alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary. The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history, including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period, and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising, documentary film, and photography outside the island.

Popular Photography, 2005-01 David 'Chim' Seymour Carole Nagggar, 2022-06-21 He used his camera like a doctor would use a stethoscope in order to diagnose the state of the heart. His own was vulnerable. Cartier Bresson wrote about David Seymour who liked to be called Chim. Chim is best known as one of the cofounders of photojournalism's famous cooperative, Magnum Photos. Weaving Chim's life and work, this book discovers this empathetic photographer who has been called The First Human Rights Photographer. In 1947, Chim was one of the four cofounders of the Magnum Photos cooperative with Robert Capa, Henri Cartier Bresson, and George Rodger. He also wrote Magnum's 1955 bylaws, which are still in effect today. But he is the only one of those famous photographers who does not have a full biography to his name. This book examines his life and work from Poland to France to the Spanish Civil War, his work for British intelligence during World War II, his reportage on Europe's children after the war, his reportages on Italian
