Maidens Meal And Money Capitalism And The Domestic Community:

Maidens, Meal and Money Claude Meillassoux, 1981-03-05 For years Matthew Greene and Daniel Rosen have enjoyed a quiet domestic life together in Northampton Massachusetts Opposites in many ways they have grown together and made their relationship work But when they learn that Daniel s twin brother and sister in law have been killed in a bombing in Jerusalem their lives are suddenly utterly transformed In dealing with their families and the need to make a decision about who will raise the deceased couple s two children both Matthew and Daniel are confronted with challenges that strike at the very heart of their relationship What is Matthew s place in an extended family that does not completely accept him or the commitment he and Daniel have made How do Daniel s questions about his identity as a Jewish man affect his life as a gay American Tensions only intensify when they learn that the deceased parents wanted Matthew and Daniel to adopt the children six year old Gal and baby Noam The impact this instant new family has on Matthew Daniel and their relationship is subtle and heartbreaking yet not without glimmers of hope They must learn to reinvent and redefine their bond in profound sometimes painful ways What kind of parents can these two men really be How does a family become strong enough to stay together and endure And are there limits to honesty or commitment or love Maidens, Meal, and Money ,1991

Workers and Working Classes in the Middle East Zachary Lockman, 1994-01-01 This book brings together for the first time the work of many of the leading scholars in the field of Middle East working class history Using historical material from nineteenth century Syria late Ottoman Anatolia republican Turkey Egypt from the late nineteenth century through the Sadat period Iran before and after the overthrow of the Shah and Ba thist Iraq the authors explore different forms and interpretations of working class identity action and organization as expressed in language culture and behavior In addition they examine different narratives of labor history and the place of workers in their respective national histories Included are articles by Feroz Ahmad Assef Bayat Joel Beinin Edmund Burke III Dipesh Chakrabarty Eric Davis Ellis Goldberg Kristin Koptiuch Zachary Lockman Marsha Pripstein Posusney Donald Quataert and Sherry Vatter The book provides not only an introduction to the state of the field in Middle East working class history but also demonstrates how that field is being influenced by the new paradigms which are transforming labor history and social history more broadly worldwide It also opens the way for fruitful comparisons among Middle Eastern countries and between the Middle East and other parts of the world

Kinship, Honour and Money in Rural Pakistan Alain Lefebvre, 2014-03-05 International migration is favoured by the governments of many poorer countries despite often well publicized abuses affecting individual migrant workers Not only is local unemployment reduced but also it is expected that the migrants will learn new skills with many even becoming entrepreneurs on their return home Meantime they are seen as a source of foreign remittances providing needed capital for economic development Such is the attitude in Pakistan from where thousands of migrant workers leave every year for the Gulf states especially An anthropological study approaching this issue from a local village level this book focuses on two areas of the Punjab Describing the historical passage of rural life from pre colonial times to the present it shows how the rural economy of the Punjab was not transformed by the green revolution on the contrary it is still a subsistence economy The resulting poverty combined with Pakistan s labour market policies forces many Punjabi men to seek work abroad in turn bringing changes to the economic role of the women left behind Remittances from abroad have brought further changes on the economic and social life of the villages but not as expected to bring economic development let alone capital or entrepreneurialism to the area

Immigrants Out! Juan F. Perea, 1997 Juan Perea has here assembled a truly interdisciplinary group of contributors to highlight the changing relationship between citizens and immigrants and the effects of economics history and demographics on that relationship Immigrants Out provides a needed antidote to the often poisonous attacks on America s most vulnerable

The Economics of the Family Nancy Folbre, 1996 This collection of essays features debate among neoclassical institutionalist and feminist theorists providing an invaluable guide to the evolution of economic approaches to the family The clash of paradigms illuminates some issues of profound concern to economics as a whole such as the relative importance of altruism and self interest Both abstract mathematical models and interdisciplinary approaches are represented and the empirical articles explore trends in developing as well as advanced industrial countries The list of specific topics includes bargaining power models fertility decline intergenerational transfers intrahousehold allocation class inequality and state policy The editor s introduction provides a broad overview of the fascinating controversies that are emerging in this relatively new field of economics

The Gendered Terrain of Disaster Elaine Pitt Enarson, Betty Morrow, 1998-06-30 Gender is revealed as a central organizing principle in social life when the unexpected transforms daily routines environments and social institutions Using specific disaster experiences from around the world this book argues for a gendered perspective in policy practice and research Contributing authors challenge the image of women as hapless victim in their accounts of women who rebuilt flooded homes in Bangladesh evacuated families from Australian bushfires reconstructed communities after a Mexican earthquake and mobilized women in Miami in the wake of Hurricane Andrew From Bangladesh to Scotland the case studies document the root causes of women s vulnerability to disaster and the central roles they play before during and after disaster The authors recommend strategies for policy makers and emergency practitioners to more fully engage women in disaster planning and response Issues in Urbanization and Urban Administration in Nigeria Emmanuel Onyebuchi Ezeani, Nnanta N.
