Management Daft Kendrick And Vershinina :

Effective Entrepreneurial Management Robert D. Hisrich, Veland Ramadani, 2016-12-23 This textbook provides a comprehensive overview of the essential issues in effective entrepreneurial management. It first introduces readers to the fundamentals of entrepreneurial management, the nature of entrepreneurial managers and business planning before exploring the specific topics of creativity and innovation, risk management, entrepreneurial marketing and organization as well as financing. The authors then move to contemporary topics such as entrepreneurial growth strategies, e-commerce challenges, ethical and socially responsible entrepreneurial management, franchising and managing entrepreneurial family ventures. Each chapter provides a case study and several practice-based examples to help explain the concepts. By providing a truly international approach, this text offers ample theoretical and empirical insights into entrepreneurship and small business management. It is a valuable and up-to-date resource for teachers and students of entrepreneurship. 18th

European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Martin Rich, 2023-11-23 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 19th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance (ECMLG 2023) hosted by ACI and Bayes Business School, City University of London, UK, on 23-24 November 2023. The Conference Chair is Dr Martin Rich from Bayes Business School, City University of London, UK. ECMLG is now a well-established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 19th year. The key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them. The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days. The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever-growing area of research. The opening keynote presentation is given by Dr Jeffrey Ridley, PhD, FCG, FIHA, CIA, on the topic of 'A lifetime of Management and Governance Learning: A wish for you all'. The second day of the conference Keynote presentation is given by Professor Pumela Msweli, University of South Africa, on the topic of 'The Leadership Dance on a geopolitically entangled dance floor: Towards Unitive Consciousness'. With an initial submission of 164 abstracts, after the double-blind peer review process, there are 54 Academic Research papers, 11 PhD Research papers, 2 Masters Research papers and 2 work-in-progress papers published in these Conference Proceedings. These papers represent research from China, Czech Republic, Czechia, Egypt, Finland, France, Germany, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, India, Italy, Kenya, Macau, Mexico, Morocco, Netherlands, Norway, Pakistan, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Saudi Arabia, Scotland, Slovakia, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland, The Netherlands, United Arab Emirates, the UK and the USA. Event Sponsorship and Fundraising Tom Lunt, Eva Nicotra, 2018-11-03 Securing sponsorship and other sources of funding for events is becoming increasingly competitive, making differentiation and delivery vital. Event Sponsorship and Fundraising explores this complex area of event management, drawing on both experiential marketing and consumer behaviour theories and developing critical insights on the dynamics of successful event sponsorship. Its coverage includes professional guidance on prospecting for sponsors, brand activation and evaluation, as well as advice on relationship management, proposal writing.

and pitching to potential sponsors Event Sponsorship and Fundraising places each of these concepts at the heart of the Integrated Marketing Communications Mix alongside cutting edge literature on the topic Written by two highly experienced industry practitioners both of which now teach on two of the UK's leading event management degree courses and supported by a comprehensive set of online resources this book is an invaluable go to resource for event management students tutors and professionals alike

Leadership Theory and Research Christian Harrison, 2017-11-16 This book provides a concise yet comprehensive literature review on leadership As well as offering critical insight into leadership research the author addresses emerging paradigms and identifies new approaches A vital tool for leadership students and scholars the text will enable readers to demonstrate a critical awareness of current developments both in theory and practice of leadership and its importance in modern organizations Both scholars and practitioners will find the engaging discussion in this book particularly useful as the author offers practical ideas for development and a much needed unified theory on leadership

Leading in the Age of Innovations Lenka Theodoulides, Gabriela Kormancová, David Cole, 2019-02-06 Leading in the Age of Innovations centres on the need for a more complex process relational oriented approach to leadership The complexity of leadership has grown significantly during the 21st century where the need to adapt to the escalating changes in our society and workplace forms one of the most important prerequisites to succeed Leading in the Age of Innovations represents the outcomes of the lengthy scientific work that was undertaken for the past 10 years and it is still an ongoing process This book introduces a new concept of leadership based on the process and relational dimensions which resulted in the development of the Reflective Leadership concept The new model of leadership provides a unique concept on how to bring together various disciplines and explains the overlapping relations between them Moreover the proposed view on leadership reflects the current evolution around the globe highlighting the importance of change and innovation In organizations too much focus is on the end product and the technical details of how a product is made and distributed Less attention is focused on how people interact and how the human capacity is effectively supported by leaders who on the other hand are expected to support a culture of innovation This behavioural interaction is governed by a set of predictable values and norms These relationships need to be understood for an organization to prosper and is thus far more important to the leadership process Leading in the Age of Innovations seeks to establish this understanding and will be key reading to researchers scholars and practitioners alike in the field of leadership organizational studies and related disciplines

Creating Value in Health

Care Dr K Ellangovan IAS, 2021-08-30 Healthcare is a fragmented service with high variance in quality from hospital to hospital and physician to physician Often poor management of hospitals contributes to undesired outcomes The clinical silos from where services are delivered lacks an integrated approach to converge all related specialists around the patient Patient satisfaction is never a unit of measurement of effectiveness in hospitals Patients are not routinely engaged in decision making and often communication with relatives is established on the eve of a catastrophic event either convince them to plead their helplessness This book reveals the internal performance dimensions that are crucial to improve clinical outcomes The performance enabling framework is an innovative model for any hospital to adapt The book brings out with clarity what constitutes value in the patients perspective The book convincingly argues that appropriate treatment which is non negotiable combined with affordability and patient satisfaction are the three dimensions that will create value in healthcare services Attracting and Retaining Millennial Workers in the Modern Business Era Tsai, Meng-Shan,2018-06-13
