

PESTLE analysis for beauty and personal care products and market size

This slide presents a PESTLE analysis of beauty and personal care products to gain a comprehensive understanding of industry environment and potential threats. It covers areas such as political, economical and social.

PESTLE

Description

Political

- Due to the nature of the cosmetic products, strict regulations are utilized as these commodities are directly utilized on the skin
- Many ingredients used in the production of these products are directly imported from other regions of the globe, this calls for a lot of export and import related regulations from the authorities
- Testing of these products also calls for high regulatory based restriction as testing on animals have become illegal in most of developed nations

Economical

- Beauty and personal care products are treated as necessary by today's society, as a need to be well groomed and look good always prevails. This is one of the most influencing reasons that economic factors had no effect on the industry
- The industry has highly contributed to the overall US economy as skincare alone was able to generate over $11 bn in revenues in 2022
- 14% of the total market share of the industry is held by cosmetics segment

Social

- Distribution of sanitizers with brand name to the frontline workers during COVID
- High-end beauty and personal care products are viewed as luxury and have contributed heavily in the factor
- Having a daily skincare routine has become a fashion trend now as companies have started to market themselves as trendsetters
