Social Networking Sites and Adjustment Problems in Offline and Online Contexts in Adolescence Belén Martínez-Ferrer, Gonzalo Musitu Ochoa, Angel Alberto Valdés-Cuervo, 2022-11-28 Crime Statistics in the News Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2017-10-06 This book offers a comparative exploration of how journalists across different newsrooms around the world access and interpret statistics when producing stories related to crime Looking at the nature of news sources regularly used by journalists Lugo Ocando analyses how these numbers are used to report crime As the author argues far from being straightforward the relationship between numbers and journalists in the context of crime reporting is complex and at times problematic. Because the reporting of crime statistics impacts upon policymaking, we need to better understand how these statistics are used and reported in order to improve the process of decision. Finally, Lugo Ocando maintains that the only way to create a fairer justice system and a better informed general public is by improving the way crime is covered in the news. A compelling and informed text, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of criminology and journalism alike. Contemporary Issues in Marketing and Consumer Behaviour Elizabeth Parsons, Pauline Maclaran, Andreas Chatzidakis, Rachel Ashman, 2023-07-31 This third edition of Contemporary Issues in Marketing and Consumer Behaviour has been revised and updated to reflect the fast-changing world we live in. The new state-of-the-art chapter on digital marketing digs deeply into two new frontiers of marketing which have significant impact on contemporary social life: influencer marketing and online gaming. Other new topics help us to understand how marketing can perpetuate local and global inequality through creating and sustaining hierarchies of knowledge and influencing norms of race, disability, gender and sexual orientation. Topics new to this edition include Digital Markets and Marketing Hierarchies of Knowledge in Marketing, Marketing Inequalities, Feminisms and intersectionalities, The Ethics and Politics of Consumption. New case studies include Emerging Economy Brands, The Fairtrade Brand, Disappearing Influencers, Decolonising the Media. Written by four experts in the field, this popular text successfully links marketing theory with practice, locating marketing ideas and applications within wider global social and economic contexts. It provides a complete and thought-provoking overview for postgraduate MBA and advanced undergraduate modules in marketing and consumer behaviour and a useful resource for dissertation study at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. Online resources include chapter-by-chapter PowerPoint slides. Digital Leisure Cultures Sandro Carnicelli, David McGillivray, Gayle McPherson, 2016-08-12 The digital turn in leisure has opened up a vast array of new opportunities to play, learn, participate and be entertained, opportunities that have transformed what we recognise as leisure. This edited collection provides a significant contribution to our changing understanding of digital leisure cultures, reflecting on the socio-historical context within which the digital age emerged while engaging with new debates about the evolving and controversial role of digital platforms in contemporary leisure cultures. This book also demonstrates the interdisciplinary nature of studying digital leisure cultures. To make sense of how individuals and institutions use digital spaces, it is necessary to draw on history, science and technology, philosophy, cultural studies, sociology and geography, as well as sport and leisure studies. This important and timely study discusses both the promise of the digital sphere as a realm of liberation and the darker side of the internet associated with control, surveillance, exclusion and dehumanisation. Digital Leisure Cultures: Critical perspectives is fascinating reading for any student or scholar of sociology, sport and leisure studies, geography or media studies. An Introduction to Criminological Theory Roger Hopkins Burke, 2018-11-01 This book

An Intergenerational Feminist Media Studies Jessalynn Keller, Jo Littler, Alison Winch, 2019-10-23 Feminism and generation are live and ideologically freighted issues that are subject to a substantial amount of media engagement The figure of the millennial and the baby boomer for example regularly circulate in mainstream media often accompanied by hyperbolic and vitriolic discourses and effects of intergenerational feminist conflict In addition theories of feminist generation and waves have been and continue to be extensively critiqued within feminist theory Given the compelling criticisms directed at these categories we ask why bother examining and foregrounding issues of generation intergeneration and transgeneration in feminist media studies While remaining skeptical of linearity and familial metaphors and of repeating reductive heteronormative and racist versions of feminist movements we believe that the concept of generation does have critical purchase for feminist media scholars Indeed precisely because of the problematic ways in which it is used and its prevalence as a volatile yet only too palpable organizing category generation is in need of continual critical analysis and is an important tool to be used with care and nuance when examining the multiple routes through which power functions in order to marginalize reward and oppress This book covers a range of media forms film games digital media television print media and practices of media production intervention and representation The contributors explore how figures at particular stages of life particularly the girl and the aging woman are constructed relationally and circulate within media with particular attention to sexuality The book emphasizes exploring the ways in which the category of generation is mobilized in order to gloss sexism racism ageism class oppression and the effects of neoliberalism The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Feminist Media Studies The

Aesthetics and Affects of Cuteness Joshua Paul Dale, Joyce Goggin, Julia Leyda, Anthony P. McIntyre, Diane Negra, 2016-12-08 Cuteness is one of the most culturally pervasive aesthetics of the new millennium and its rapid social proliferation suggests that the affective responses it provokes find particular purchase in a contemporary era marked by intensive media saturation and spreading economic precarity Rejecting superficial assessments that would deem the ever expanding plethora of cute texts trivial The Aesthetics and Affects of Cuteness directs serious scholarly attention from a variety of academic disciplines to this ubiquitous phenomenon The sheer plasticity of this minor aesthetic is vividly on display in this collection which draws together analyses from around the world examining cuteness's fundamental role in cultural expressions stemming from such diverse sources as military cultures high end contemporary art worlds and animal shelters Pushing beyond prevailing understandings that associate cuteness solely with childhood or which posit an interpolated parental bond as its primary affective attachment the essays in this collection variously draw connections between cuteness and the social political economic and technological conditions of the early twenty first century and in doing so generate fresh understandings of the central role cuteness plays in the recalibration of contemporary subjectivities Handbook of New
