Pilot Aptitude Battery test is conducted for the candidates who aspire to join flying branch of Air-force, Navy, Army and Coast guard in Indian Defense Forces. Pilot Aptitude Battery Test (PABT) is aimed at assessing a candidate's aptitude to be trained as a pilot. PABT is being used as an independent selection device to induct potential officers into Flying Branch of Indian Air Force. PABT comprises three tests viz Instrument Battery Test (INSB), Sensory Motor Apparatus Test (SMA) and Control Velocity Test (CVT). Instrument Battery Test (INSB) is a paper pencil test and other two are machine tests. The Instrument Battery Test (INSB) comprises two parts. This test assesses assimilation of the briefing and the ability of an individual to read and interpret the dials of an instrument panel of an aircraft. The candidates who score the minimum laid down criteria are subjected to the machine test. The machine test includes Sensory Motor Apparatus Test (SMA) and Control Velocity Test (CVT). These tests measure the psychomotor co-ordination skill of the individual. These tests are conducted on a single day and administered only once in life time, and if you fail you cannot apply for flying branch again. Once you have passed this test you don't have to appear for it again, if there is a next time, this score will be carried throughout. Foot-hand-eye coordination is tested through this battery of three different tests.

1.The Instrument Battery Test (INSB) .

This is a written test which is done in two parts-

Test 1: Apparatus reading test

In this test the basic six instruments in an aircraft will be explained by the test instructor to the candidates. Only after clearing doubts of candidates the test will commence. These instruments are explained in complete detail containing each and every point needed for successfully qualifying the test. Hence, the candidates should listen to the officer with very receptive mind and make sincere efforts to understand every detail that is being imparted to them. Also they should keep away from silly questions and also try their level best to clarify whatever doubt they have, whenever the Officer asks them.
