Postcolonial Artists And Global Aesthetics:

Postcolonial Artists and Global Aesthetics Akinwumi Adesokan,2011-10-21 What happens when social and political processes such as globalization shape cultural production Drawing on a range of writers and filmmakers from Africa and elsewhere Akin Adesokan explores the forces at work in the production and circulation of culture in a globalized world He tackles problems such as artistic representation in the era of decolonization the uneven development of aesthetics across the world and the impact of location and commodity culture on genres with a distinctive approach that exposes the global processes transforming cultural forms Postcolonial Artists and Global Aesthetics Akinwumi Adesokan,2011-10-21 What happens when social and political processes such as globalization shape cultural production Drawing on a range of writers and filmmakers from Africa and elsewhere Akin Adesokan explores the forces at work in the production and circulation of culture in a globalized world He tackles problems such as artistic representation in the era of decolonization the uneven development of aesthetics across the world and the impact of location and commodity culture on genres with a distinctive approach that exposes the global processes transforming cultural forms Xala James S. Williams,2024-05-02 Xala 1974 by the pioneering Senegalese director Ousmane Sembene was acclaimed on its release for its scorching critique of postcolonial African society and it cemented Sembene's status as a wholly new kind of politically engaged pan African auteur film maker Centring on the story of businessman El Hadji and the impotence that afflicts him on his marriage to a young third wife Xala vividly captures the cultural and political upheaval of 1970s Senegal while suggesting the radical potential of dissent solidarity and collective action embodied by El Hadji's student daughter Rama and the group of urban undesirables who act as a kind of raw chorus to the affairs of the neocolonial elite James S Williams's lucid study traces Xala's difficult production history and analyses its daring combination of political and domestic drama oral narrative social realism symbolism satire documentary mysticism and Marxist analysis Yet from its dazzling extended opening sequence of revolution as performance to its suspended climax of redemption through ritualised spitting Xala presents a series of conceptual and formal challenges that resist a simple reading of the film as allegory Highlighting often overlooked elements of Sembene's intricate experimental film making including provocative shifts in mood and poetic even subversively erotic moments Williams reveals Xala as a visionary work of both African cinema and Third Cinema that extended the parameters of postcolonial film practice and still resounds today with its searing inventive power Everything Is Sampled Akin Adesokan,2023-03-28 Everything Is Sampled examines the shifting modes of production and circulation of African artistic forms since the 1980s focusing on digital culture as the most currently decisive setting for these changes Drawing on works of cinema literature music and visual art Akin Adesokan addresses two main questions First given the various changes that the institutions producing African arts and letters have undergone in the past four decades how have the representational impulses in these forms fared in comparison with those at work in pervasively digital cultures Second how might a long view of these artistic forms across media and in different settings affect our understanding of what counts as art as text as authorship Immersed in digital culture African artists today are acutely aware of the media saturated circumstances in which they work and actively bridge them by making ethical choices to shape those circumstances Through an innovative development and analysis of five modes of creative practice curation composition adaptation platform and remix Everything Is Sampled offers an absorbingly complex yet nuanced approach to appreciating the work of several generations of African writers directors and artists No longer content to just fill a spot in the relay between the conception and distribution of a work these artists are now also quick to view and reconfigure their works through different modes of creative practice Ariel ,2013 Aesthetics, Arts, and Politics in a Global World Daniel Herwitz,2017-01-26 A different set of purposes define culture today than those that preoccupied the world in the immediate decades of decolonization Focusing on art and music in diverse parts of the world Daniel Herwitz explores a world that has largely shifted from the earlier days of nationalism decolonization and cultural exclusion to one of global markets and networks Using examples from India and Mexico to South Africa Australia and China Herwitz argues that the cultural politics and art being produced in these places are now post postcolonial Where the postcolonial downplayed formerly Eurocentric forms and celebrated art with national consciousness the rules for 21st century cultural authenticity are quickly disappearing Young people think of themselves in relation to global culture rather than nation building the project of producing a new and modern art for the incipient and rising postcolonial nation is out of date By examining the shift in which art accesses the past and the rise of trends such as hitching consumer culture to celebrity forms and branding Herwitz s original and engaging exploration of contemporary art captures the ways in which art has given way to a new form of production altering everything from the role of tradition and heritage in contemporary art to the terms of its vision and circulation Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Contemporary Commonwealth Charles Green,2006 Twenty two artists from Australia and across the Commonwealth were presented in an exhibition that was the flagship program of the Commonwealth games Aesthetics, Arts and Politics in a Global World Daniel Alan Herwitz,2016 Global Studies Julia T. collectives working in Calcutta from these decades Sanjukta Sunderason argues that artists became political not only as reporters organizers and cadre of India's Communist Party or socialist fellow travelers but through shifting modes of political participations and dissociations Unmooring questions of Indian modernism from its hitherto dominant harnesses to national or global affiliations Sunderason activates instead distinctly locational histories that refract transnational currents She analyzes largely unknown and dispersed archives drawings diaries posters periodicals and pamphlets alongside paintings and prints and insists that art as archive is foundational to understanding modern art's socialist affiliations during India's long decolonization By bringing together expanding fields of South Asian art global modernisms and Third World cultures Partisan Aesthetics generates a new narrative that combines political history of Indian modernism social history of postcolonial cultural criticism and intellectual history of decolonization Research Report University of Ghana, 2013 Art Journal, 1960 The Manifesta Decade Barbara Vanderlinden, Elena Filipovic, 2005 Reflections from curators historians philosophers anthropologists architects and writers on the cultural and political conditions of European exhibition practice since the fall of the Berlin Wall Encyclopedia of Aesthetics: Plea-Zhua, 1998 The American War in Contemporary Vietnam Christina Schwenkel, 2009 Transnational politics of war and remembrance Australian and New Zealand Journal of Art, 2006 World Art Studies Kitty Zijlmans, Wilfried Van Damme, 2008 This timely volume challenges the narrow Western centrism of most art historical models Archeologists have found that for tens of thousands of years all human cultures have shared a desire for visual representation or expression Yet the study of art history has traditionally focused on Western artworks of the past few centuries World Art Studies examines the phenomenon of art through a broader cultural global and temporal perspective bringing together a uniquely exhaustive range of perspectives on art and borrowing approaches from the study of neuroscience evolutionary biology anthropology and geography as models alongside more conventional art historical perspectives In musicology or linguistics using such diverse viewpoints for reflection and research is considered part of the normal process In that spirit this volume goes beyond abstract models using case studies to demonstrate and examine specific methods of investigation BOOK JACKET Postcolonial Theory, 1999
