Fra Angelico Dissemblance And Figuration:

Fra Angelico Georges Didi-Huberman, Angelico (fra), 1995-10-15 A Florentine painter who took Dominican vows Fra Angelico 1400 1455 approached his work as a largely theological project For him the problems of representing the unrepresentable of portraying the divine and the spiritual mitigated the more secular breakthroughs in imitative technique Didi Huberman explores Fra Angelico s solutions to these problems his use of color to signal approaching visibility of marble to recall Christ s tomb of paint drippings to simulate or stimulate holy anointing He shows how the painter employed emptiness visual transformation and displacement to give form to the mystery of faith In the work of Fra Angelico an alternate strain of Renaissance painting emerges to challenge rather than reinforce verisimilitude Didi Huberman traces this disruptive impulse through theological writings and iconographic evidence and identifies a widespread tradition in Renaissance art that ranges from Giotto s break with Byzantine image making well into the sixteenth century He reveals how the techniques that served this ultimately religious impulse may have anticipated the more abstract characteristics of modern art such as color fields paint splatterings and the absence of color Part of Didi Huberman s large scale rethinking of art theory and history and the first of his books to appear in English translation Fra Angelico is a fitting introduction to one of the most original and celebrated writers in the world of art history and criticism Fra Angelico Georges Didi-Huberman, 1990

Fra Angelico Georges Didi-Huberman, 2009-05-14 Ce livre est un regard nouveau pos sur la peinture de la Renaissance italienne D couvrant une partie in dite et surprenante d une oeuvre de Fra Angelico l auteur s engage dans une v ritable enqu te qui finira par renverser un certain nombre de nos id es acquises sur la peinture du XVe si cle Fra Angelico. Ediz. illustrata Diane Cole Ahl, Angelico (fra), 2008-07-31 Examines the life and work of possibly the most celebrated religious painter of the Italian Early Renaissance Fra Giovanni da Fiesole known as Fra Angelico From the delicate altarpieces to the serene frescos in the monastery of San Marco in Florence this book discusses the context of the time and places in which his works were created Practice and Theory in the Italian Renaissance Workshop Christina Neilson, 2019-07-18 Verrocchio worked in an extraordinarily wide array of media and used unusual practices of making to express ideas Fra Angelico Alastair Smart, Angelico (fra), 1976 Phenomenology, New Materialism, and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Nicoletta Isar, 2024-03-12 Phenomenology New Materialism and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Rites Of Disimagination brings together scholars from art history and image theory literary studies and philosophy Chapters of this volume engage with the overarching theme of imagination as a pulsatile force embedded in words images and all imaginative modes of instantiation of the work of art in their elemental aspects expressed in visual arts and literature as well as bodily schemata of choreographic and musical performances The papers employ contrasting and complementing methods from literary studies and image theory especially phenomenology and new materialism such as G Bachelard and M Merleau Ponty G Bataille J Kristeva P Lacoue Labarthe and J Sallis G Didi Huberman H Belting and A Warburg J Bennett and Jason M Wirth as well as performance studies Chapters in this volume inquire into the imaginative forces that disrupt and disinherit the traditional habits of imagination to create pulsatile imaginaries i.e. a dynamic process of emergence/resurgence of image manifested in the act of creation and in perception This process does not properly imply a destruction of image but rather a withdrawal of image from the realm of representation to give way to new images and new imaginative experiences The newly coined term rite of disimagination points out to this operation consecutively implying imagining and disimagining that both denies as well as validates image it valorizes matter The affirmation of the materiality of image is the re-incarnation of image

Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson, 2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists/filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future

Encountering Transcendence Lieven Boeve, Hans Geybels, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005 This volume consists of several contributions to a refined understanding of religious experience in view of contemporary theological epistemology Diverse sample studies taken from the extensive field of religion/theology and religious studies reveal that religious experience is today clearly a pivotal issue More specifically this is made evident in modern theological hermeneutics and in the anti-modern and/or post-modern reactions thereto the theology of world religions and inter-religious dialogue the contemporary resurgence of religiosity in Western society and culture and the so-called turn to religion in contemporary continental philosophy It would appear from such studies that the category of religious experience is frequently called upon to clarify or explain the phenomenon of religion and religiosity on the one hand and to support and legitimise religious positions or the critique thereof on the other Because of the loss of plausibility of tradition-bound religiosity and of foundational so-called onto-theological schemes religious experience has come to constitute for many the last or latest point of departure and anchor for religion and religious thinking This is certainly the case with respect to tendencies within contemporary Christian traditions and theological reflection In a multitude of ways and from a variety of different perspectives religious experience and experience of transcendence or of the divine have gained a prominent place in philosophical and fundamental theological conceptual schemes In reaction to this other authors have denied the very primacy given to religious experience in reflecting upon faith pointing to the constitutive role of tradition and narrative without which there is no religious experience From all this follows that the category of religious experience is in great need of reconceptualisation not least from a theological point of view On the one hand religious experience is all too easily called upon to legitimise religious claims often against tradition and on the other hand the category has become misleading in so far as it is tainted by the modern scientific understanding of experience in reaction to which tradition is then easily invoked to protect the core of religion Both young scholars at the preceding junior conference and senior scholars during the conference s paper sessions presented from diverse perspectives new ways to conceive of religious experience in view of today s challenges of secularisation religious plurality the aestheticisation of religion etc The selected contributions have been arranged in four thematically oriented parts Approaching Religious Experience in a Postmodern Age Modern re Thinking of Religious Experience Liberating Religious Experience and Challenges for Spirituality A Sense of the Sacred

R. Kevin Seasoltz,2005-01-01 There have been many histories of Christian art and architecture but none written by a theologian such as Kevin Seasoltz Following a chapter on culture as the context for theology liturgy and art Seasoltz surveys developments from the early church up through the conventional artistic styles and periods Comprehensive illuminating ecumenical Pieter Bruegel the Elder and Religion ,2018-07-17 Pieter Bruegel the Elder and Religion offers new insight into the religious dimension of Bruegel s art With a number of highly original and thorough case studies the volume illuminates Bruegel s inventive and multifaceted engagement with the contemporary religious concepts and practices of his day and age Religion remains a vital question in the life and career of Bruegel because it was so long believed to be more or less absent from his work As a pioneer of the new genres of landscape and peasant scenes Bruegel was heralded as a ground breaking secular painter This volume highlights the most recent scholarship on the artist offering a much more nuanced portrait of Bruegel s engagement with the dynamic religious landscape of the mid sixteenth century Contributors are Jessica Buskirk Ralph Dekoninck Bertram Kaschek Walter S Melion Jürgen M ller Anna Pawlak Gerd Schwerhoff Larry Silver and Michel Weemans Somaesthetic Experience and the Viewer in Medicean Florence Allie Terry-Fritsch,2025-10-01 Viewers in the Middle Ages and Renaissance were encouraged to forge connections between their physical and affective states when they experienced works of art They believed that their bodies served a critical function in coming to know and make sense of the world around them and intimately engaged themselves with works of art and architecture on a daily basis This book examines how viewers in Medicean Florence were self consciously cultivated to enhance their sensory appreciation of works of art and creatively self fashion through somaesthetics Mobilized as a technology for the production of knowledge with and through their bodies viewers contributed to the essential meaning of Renaissance art and in the process bound themselves to others By investigating the framework and practice of somaesthetic experience of works by Benozzo Gozzoli Donatello Benedetto Buglioni Giorgio Vasari and others in fifteenth and sixteenth century Florence the book approaches the viewer as a powerful tool that was used by patrons to shape identity and power in the Renaissance Picturing Science, Producing Art Peter Galison,Caroline A. an informa company On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art James Elkins, 2004-12-15 Can contemporary art say anything about spirituality John Updike calls modern art a religion assembled from the fragments of our daily life but does that mean that contemporary art is spiritual What might it mean to say that the art you make expresses your spiritual belief On the Strange Place of Religion in Contemporary Art explores the curious disconnection between spirituality and current art This book will enable you to walk into a museum and talk about the spirituality that is or is not visible in the art you see Is There Truth in Art? Herman Rapaport, 2018-09-05 The question posed by Herman Rapaport in the title of this book is intended both seriously and ironically It is not Rapaport's purpose to debate whether or not truth resides in art The title points rather to his belief that truth needs to be reconceptualized in the light of continuing efforts to deconstruct and to discredit the notion of truthfulness in art The question of art's truthfulness persists because truth in art is neither an entity or content that has been injected into the work nor a transcendental concept or ground that exists outside it Moreover when used in relation to art Rapaport says truth means something quite different from conventional definitions of the term Indeed a central question that informs the book is the return of truth at the far side of its deconstruction Is There Truth in Art includes chapters on atonal music environmental art modern German and French poetry contemporary French fiction experimental French film and a photograph taken by the National Socialists during the destruction of the Warsaw ghetto Determining how truth can be said to occur in these examples Rapaport maintains requires analysis in each instance He draws chiefly upon the thinkers who have radically reformulated questions about truth Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida and Levinas and uses their writings to explore the works under analysis Where Heaven and Earth Meet W. Stoker, 2012-01-01 Art has always been important for religion or spirituality Secular art displayed in museums can also be spiritual and it is this art that is the subject of this book Many of the works of art produced by Wassily Kandinsky Mark Rothko Andy Warhol and Anselm Kiefer are spiritual in nature These works reveal their own spirituality which often has no connection to official religions Wessel Stoker demonstrates that these artists communicate religious insights through images and shows how they depict the relationship between heaven and earth between this world and a transcendent reality thus clearly drawing the contours of the spirituality these works evince Transcendence Regina Schwartz, 2007-11-13 In Transcendence thinkers from John Milbank Graham Ward and Kevin Hart to Thomas Carlson Slavoj Žižek and Jean Luc Marion have come together to create the definitive analysis of this key concept in modern theological and philosophical thought Tension / Spannung Christoph F. E. Holzhey, 2010 Tension appears in many contexts and carries diverse meanings It tends to be viewed as something to be avoided and reduced in politics to be explained worked through and resolved in therapy or science to be endured and sustained in modern art or to be sought after and enjoyed in popular culture This volume brings together contributions from several academic and artistic fields in order to question the self-evidence of the deceptively simple term tension and explore the possibility of productive transfers among different forms and understandings of tension Refusing the temptation of a stabilizing synthesis it establishes a dense web of approaches providing a new critical paradigm for further inquiry Compelling Visuality Claire J. Farago, Robert Zwijnenberg, 2003 Depth of Field Donal Cooper, 2007 This volume has its origins in Depth of Field Relief in the Time of Donatello a unique collaboration between the Victoria and Albert Museum and the Henry Moore Institute in Leeds and the first exhibition to focus specifically on relief sculpture
