Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art's conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum's study redresses this omission contextualizing the group's legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group's artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum's extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

Women Kristen Frederickson, 2003-03-04 Contemporary art historians all of them women probe the dilemmas and complexities of writing about the woman artist past and present These 13 essays address the work and history of specific artists beginning with the Renaissance and ending with the present day The Borders of Empathy in Children's Fiction

Macarena García-González, 2025-06-16 The Borders of Empathy in Children's Fiction centres the question of how reading fiction develops our moral imagination and our capacities to think and feel with others The question is approached with a good dose of scepticism revising tensions between ethical aesthetical and pedagogical dimensions when certain books films and other cultural materials are recommended for children This volume examines how texts addressed to children are meant to assist socioemotional education and whether we put forward adultist assumptions around such conceptualisations of the emotional The book is organised into nine chapters with some of them focusing on difficult themes such as violence xenophobia death migration as well as gender and social exclusions and some others on more general relationships between emotions media and education The chapters combine a textual analysis of recommended cultural materials for children with insights from empirical research and ethnographic approaches to children's cultures A common thread throughout the book is the open question about the epistemic injustices in knowing children and childhood and how this may be overcome by shifting our research practices with posthumanist philosophies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Covarrubias Circle Peter Mears, 2004 New York in the 1920s and 1930s was a modernist mecca that drew artists writers and other creators of culture from around the globe Two such expatriates were Mexican artist and Renaissance man Miguel Covarrubias and Hungarian photographer Nickolas Muray Their lifelong friendship gave Muray an entrance into Covarrubias's circle of fellow Mexican artists Frida Kahlo Rufino Tamayo Juan Soriano Fernando Castillo Guillermo Meza Roberto Montenegro and Rafael Navarro whose works Muray collected This outstanding body of Mexican modernist art now owned by the Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center HRC at the University of Texas at Austin forms the subject of this beautifully illustrated volume Produced in conjunction with the Ransom Center's exhibition Miguel Covarrubias A Certain Clairvoyance this volume contains color plates of virtually all the items in Nickolas Muray's collection of twentieth century Mexican art The majority of the works are by Covarrubias while the excellent works by the other artists reflect the range of aesthetic shifts and modernist influences of the period in Mexico Accompanying the plates are five original essays that establish Covarrubias's importance as a modernist impresario as influential in his sphere as Ezra Pound T S Eliot and Jean Cocteau were in theirs Likewise the essays reestablish the significance of Nickolas Muray whose success as a master of color photography portraiture advertising imagery and commercial illustration has made him difficult to place within the history of photography as a fine art As a whole this publication of the Nickolas Muray Collection vividly illustrates the transgression of generic boundaries and the cross fertilization among artists working in different media from painting and photography to dance and ethnography that gave modernism its freshness and energy It also demonstrates that American modernism was thoroughly infused with a fervor for all things Mexican of which Covarrubias was a principal proponent and that Mexican modernists no less than their American and European counterparts answered Pound's call to make it new Infertility and the Creative Spirit Roxane Head Dinkin, Robert J.
