Costly Reflections in a Midas Mirror D. Larry Crumley, Donald L. Ariail, Julie C. Chenier, G. Stevenson Smith, 2011 Costly Reflections in a Midas Mirror is an educational novel to be used near the end of a principles of managerial accounting course or at the beginning of a second level cost accounting course This instructional novel is ideal for an MBA program or a finance course which has a light coverage of managerial accounting The inverse of ledgers margins and units the story contains dead bodies a wealthy client and a drug money laundering scheme This supplemental text mixes fraud murder art ethics terrorism and managerial accounting together to get a better way of learning the accounting process Lenny Cramer a Professor at Columbia University tries to help a wealthy friend of his university As a managerial professor he uses his forensic background to solve a whodunit plot Along the way business practices and accounting concepts are elucidated in a way both students and instructors will find gripping as well as informative This scenario approach may be used to reinforce cost accounting principles and introduce writing skills into the classroom The potential murderers are numerous in this fast paced Philip Marlowe type intrigue Although a fundamental premise in accounting is that the reporting entity is a going concern in the absence of evidence to the contrary with so many murders in this plot a liquidation assumption is more appropriate So jump on board and enjoy the read But keep sunk costs values and salability of assets in mind as you unravel the plot rather than the traditional historical costs Remember that an effective managerial accountant must be a good detective with a computer even without a fedora and snub nosed revolver Dan Stone said in a review that Lenny Cramer and his life offer rich possibilities for exploring the construction of an accountant life The novel has a sense of humor it entertains and it even educates Ultimately Crumbley and his pioneering co authors deserve our thanks and praise for bravely creating a new genre of accounting scholarship despite considerable overt hostility from both in and outside the academy
