Mother Earth, Mother Africa and Mission Seblewengel Daniel, Mmapula Diana Kebaneilwe, Angeline Savala, 2021-07-01 The volume is significant in bringing together voices of African women theologians and their allies on the urgent topic of ecology. First it decisively intervenes into scholarly discourses on ecofeminism by highlighting the reflections of African women scholars and African women as subjects. This function of the volume is very important both at local and global levels. Second it contributes to contextualizing of scriptural interpretation around the issue of ecology. Biblical reflection occurs throughout the volume and is put into dialogue with African traditions with ecofeminism with Africa based mission projects and with the current crisis of sustainability and African women's roles in protecting the earth. Third the volume includes several concrete case studies based on interviews and grassroots qualitative research as well as especially original articles that integrate biblical exegesis of Genesis with reflections on patriarchal legal systems in Botswana and an original take on male headship in relation to ecofeminism. The Next Gen Church Larry A. McMillan, 2018-07-06 The writing of this took place in the midst of joys and burdens, sickness and excitement. It took place in the midst of urban flirting within churches in places like Jamaica, Germany, Las Vegas, Lake Mead, Switzerland, France, our cabin in the Poconos, Pennsylvania, Churchville, Maryland, at our parents home in Lake Waccamaw, North Carolina, and Hallsboro, North Carolina. Hampton Ministers Conference in Hampton, Virginia, and along the seashores of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. But now it is yours and prayerfully to the glory of God, ready to give a blessing to the reader. Again I am thankful for Mrs. McMillan's patience and gentle encouragement, all of which I needed for I am a man who spread on lots of words on a table and needed someone to sort them out and present them as I intended.

Sensational Piety Murtala Ibrahim, 2022-08-11 Grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality, this book offers an in-depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a Pentecostal Church, Christ Embassy, and an Islamic group, NASFAT, in the Nigerian capital of Abuja. Scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter religious contestations and conflicts however this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between Christians and Muslims that is characterised by conviviality interfaith joint action programmes mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms The comparative approach reveals that notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between Muslims and Christians they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious Nigerian urban environment It is through practices especially those conducted in semi public settings that people from different religious persuasions define encroach on and feel the weight of each other s presence
