The Middle East ,1990 Design Otherwise Danah Abdulla,2025-01-23 How can we study and teach design in a way that is critical socially engaged and relevant to place In this timely book Danah Abdulla challenges us to imagine a design education and culture that moves beyond blindly borrowing Eurocentric models and frameworks Drawing on learnings from work with design students educators and designers in the Arab region with a particular focus on Jordan and featuring examples from Lebanon Egypt and the United Arab Emirates Abdulla creates a dialogue with those who have most at stake in education to imagine how we can develop a collaborative contextually based and socially relevant design education By first contextualising higher education and design education in the region and examining the issues and challenges that are pertinent to the development of curricula and pedagogy such as power bureaucracy language and access Abdulla considers the purpose and relevance of design education in contemporary postcolonial societies She explores how regional identities and class divisions shape the development of design cultures as well as different perceptions of design and its value Abdulla highlights design s role in society and the models of curricula and pedagogy appropriate for developing contextually situated design education Outlining skills and strategies for equipping future designers she proposes new possibilities for forms of practice and an actionable framework for developing design education Benn's Media ,2006 The Business Year: Bahrain 2026 , Across 200 pages of exclusive interviews analysis and features The Business Year Bahrain 2026 highlights the nation s strategic progress under Vision 2030 and the Economic Recovery Plan It includes insights from key government figures and business leaders driving growth in sectors ranging from finance industry and logistics to telecoms real estate and tourism The Report: Bahrain 2015 Oxford Business Group,2015-02-27 The kingdom rose to prominence as the region s financial hub in the 1970s and today despite increasing competition from its neighbours it is bolstering this position as it leads the way in the Islamic banking segment hosting the highest concentration of Islamic financial institutions globally The takaful segment represents one of the fastest growing segments in Bahrain s insurance sector itself boasting the highest insurance penetration rate in the GCC Meanwhile a rising population is driving housing and transport infrastructure in the country with private contractors benefitting as a result Looking forward these expansions to rail and air links should boost the kingdom s tourism offering with tourism s contribution to GDP expected to grow significantly over the next 10 years while elsewhere the projects will drive Bahrain s role as a regional logistics centre with the kingdom aiming to position itself as a key entry point to the GCC moving forward The Report: Bahrain 2017 Oxford Business Group, Like its Gulf neighbours Bahrain has continued to offset the effects of the drop in oil prices with a host of measures including moves towards subsidy reduction now in place to ease the pressure Despite the downturn however the country has continued to push ahead with many big ticket projects Counter cyclical spending in the energy sector is expected to stand the broader economy in good stead in the years to come as expansion boosts the country s refining capacity and provides a reliable supply of fuel for its heavy industries Indeed manufacturing continues to play a significant role with the 3bn project to build a sixth potline for Aluminium Bahrain representing the company s largest expansion since potline five came on stream in 2005 The kingdom s financial sector has long been a dominant player in the region and despite increasing competition from emerging financial centres in the region continues to benefit from an advanced regulatory framework an educated workforce and a relatively low cost environment
