Dialectic Of Enlightenment Verso Classics:

Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer, Theodor Adorno, 2016-09-06 Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer are the leading figures of the Frankfurt School and this book is their magnum opus Dialectic of Enlightenment is one of the most celebrated works of modern social philosophy that continues to impress in its wide ranging ambition Writing just after the Second World War and reflecting on the bureaucracy and myths of National Socialism and the inanity of the dawn of consumerism Adorno and Horkheimer addressed themselves to a question which went to the very heart of the modern age why mankind instead of entering into a truly human condition is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Modernity far from redeeming the promises and hopes of the Enlightenment had resulted in a stultification of mankind and administered society characterised by simulation and candy floss entertainment Tracing humanity's modern fall to the very rationality that was to be its liberation the authors exposed the domination and violence that underpin the Enlightenment project Theological Anthropology in the Anthropocene Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2022-12-14 The Anthropocene presents theology and especially theological anthropology with unprecedented challenges There are no immediately available resources in the theological tradition that reflect directly on such experiences Accordingly the situation calls for contextually based theological reflection of what it means to be human under such circumstances This book discusses the main elements in theological anthropology in light of the fundamental points a that theological anthropology needs to be articulated with reference to and informed by the concrete historical circumstances in which humanity presently finds itself and b that the notion of the Anthropocene can be used as a heuristic tool to describe important traits and conditions that call for a response by humanity and which entail the need for a renewal of what a Christian self understanding means Jan Olav Henriksen explores what such a response entails from the point of view of contemporary theological anthropology and discusses selected topics that can contribute to a contextually based position Hegelian-Lacanian Variations on Late Modernity Alireza Taheri, 2020-12-29 The current rise in new religions and the growing popularity of New Ageism is concomitant with an increasingly anti philosophical sentiment marking our contemporary situation More specifically it is philosophical and psychoanalytic reason that has lost standing faced with the triumph of post secular spirituality Combatting this trend this treatise develops a theoretical apparatus based on Hegelian speculative reason and Lacanian psychoanalysis With the aid of this theoretical apparatus the book argues how certain conceptual pairs appear opposed through an operation of misrecognition christened following Hegel as diremption The failure to reckon with identities in difference relegates the subject to more vicious contradictions that define central aspects of our contemporary predicament The repeated thesis of the treatise is that the deadlocks marking our contemporary situation require renewed engagement with dialectical thinking beyond the impasses of common understanding Only by embarking on this philosophical psychoanalytic path of despair Hegel will we stand a chance of achieving joyful wisdom Nietzsche Developing a unique dialectical theory based on readings of Hegel Lacan and Iek in order to address various philosophical and psychoanalytic questions this book will be of great interest to anyone interested in German idealism and or psychoanalytic theory Climate Change and the Symbol Deficit in the Christian Tradition Jan-Olav

Henriksen,2022-02-24 Exploring how the climate crisis discloses the symbol deficit in the Christian tradition this book argues that Christianity is rich in symbols that identify and address the failures of humans and the obstacles that prevent humans from doing well while positive symbols that can engage people in constructive action seem underdeveloped Henriksen examines the potential of the Christian tradition to develop symbols that can engage peoples in committed and sustained action to prevent further crisis To do so he argues that we need symbols that engage both intellectually and emotionally and which enhance our perception of belonging in relationships with other humans be it both in the present and in the future According to Henriksen the deficit can only be obliterated if we can develop symbols that have some root or resonance in the Christian tradition provide concrete and specified guidance of agency engage people both emotionally and intellectually and finally open up to visions for a moral agency that provide positive motivations for caring about environmental conditions as a whole Growth against Democracy H. L. T. Quan,2012-08-20 Growth against Democracy Savage Developmentalism in the Modern World by H L T Quan is a compelling interrogation of the ways in which we have thought about modernity capitalism and democracy and how those ideas inform neoliberal economics diplomacy and impact human life To explicate contemporary theories of development Quan introduces the concept of savage developmentalism with its attendant distortions of the ideals of equality and freedom and assumptions that foment antidemocratic social and political forms By outlining the pitfalls of security obsessed developmental approaches Growth against Democracy troubles the simple notion that modernity is inherently superior and development will benefit everyone It shows how capitalists needs for market finance and profitability often lead to development programs that engender expansionism dispossession and repression Drawing on political theory international political economy critical ethnic studies legal studies and feminist analytics this groundbreaking study exemplifies how multi disciplinary scholarship best addresses the increasingly complex and multi layered issues facing humanity today It analyzes the linkages between development and national security and provides sustained attention to the making of foreign policy the development of capitalism and corporate globalization The book highlights three critical examples of where savage developmentalism has eventuated worse living conditions severe social repression and displacement Brazilian Japanese economic relations in Brazil under military rule 1964 1985 China s aggressive courting of African good will and resources and the United States reconstruction of Iraq These three major historical cases represent some of the most momentous global development in the last sixty years and never before have such powerful cases been analyzed in the same monograph Growth against Democracy helps re evaluate the promises of progress security and freedom and broadens our ideas about and priorities for humane public policy at the national and global levels

Eighteenth-century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder Sarah Tindal Kareem,2014 A footprint materializes

mysteriously on a deserted shore a giant helmet falls from the sky a traveler awakens to find his horse dangling from a church steeple Eighteenth century British fiction brims with moments such as these in which the prosaic rubs up against the marvelous While it is a truism that the period's literature is distinguished by its realism and air of probability Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder argues that wonder is integral to rather than antithetical to the developing techniques of novelistic fiction Positioning its reader on the cusp between recognition and estrangement between faith and doubt modern fiction hinges upon wonder Eighteenth Century Fiction and the Reinvention of Wonder's chapters unfold its new account of British fiction's rise through surprising new readings of classic early novels from Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe to Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey as well as bringing to attention lesser known works most notably Rudolf Raspe's Baron Munchausen's Narrative of His Marvellous Travels In this bold new account the eighteenth century bears witness not to the world's disenchantment but rather to wonder's relocation from the supernatural realm to the empirical world providing a re-evaluation not only of how we look back at the Enlightenment but also of how we read today

Critical theory and dystopia Patricia McManus, 2022-06-21 Critical theory and dystopia offers a uniquely rich study of dystopian fiction drawing on the insights of critical theory Asking what ideological work these dark imaginings perform the book reconstructs the historical emergence consolidation and transformation of the genre across the twentieth century and into our own ranging from Yevgeny Zamiatin's We 1924 and Aldous Huxley's Brave New World 1932 to Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange 1963 and Suzanne Collins's Hunger Games series 2000s and 2010s In doing so it reveals the political logics opened up or neutered by the successive moments of this dystopian history The Genres of Genre: Form, Formats, and Cultural Formations Cécile Heim, Boris Vejdovsky, Benjamin Pickford, 2019-10-14 This volume presents a selection of essays discussing recent developments in genre theory It furthermore reflects the current research of members of the Swiss Association of North American Studies

A Gateway Between a Distant God and a Cruel World Reut Yael Paz, 2012-10-19 Through a collective biographical methodology of four scholars 20th century scholars this book investigates how Jewish identity and intellectual ties to Judaic civilisation in the German speaking legal context influenced the international legal discipline

Alterity and Capitalism in Speculative Fiction Tomás Vergara, 2023-10-04 Speculative fiction has been traditionally studied in Marxist literary criticism following Darko Suvin's paradigmatic model of science fiction according to a hierarchical division of its multiple subgenres in terms of their assumed inherent political value By drawing on an alternative genealogy of Marxist criticism this book presents a non hierarchical understanding of the estrangement connecting all varieties of speculative fiction outlining the political potential shared across the spectrum of speculative fiction along with the specific narrative strategies by which it critically engages with its historical context of production This study's main point of contention is that speculative fiction performs an estrangement effect on historical reality that can potentially render visible the role of fantasies in the organisation of capitalist social practice This narrative effect enables an estranged perspective by which the novel interprets and conceptualises historical reality in a totalising manner

Culture and Crisis Nina Witoszek, Lars Trägårdh, 2002 It is often argued that Germany and Scandinavia stand at two opposite ends of a spectrum with regard to their response to social economic disruptions and cultural challenges Though in many respects they have a shared cultural inheritance it is nevertheless the case that they mobilize different mythologies and different modes of coping when faced with breakdown and disorder The authors argue that it is at these critical junctures points of crisis and innovation in the life of communities that the tradition and identity of national and local communities are formed polarized and revalued it is here that social change takes a particular direction

Citizenship, Democracies, and Media Engagement among Emerging Economies and Marginalized Communities Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, 2017-09-18 This volume analyzes the contexts in which emerging economies in Africa the Caribbean Central and South America the Middle East and Asia can chart their socioeconomic futures through progressive democratic practices and media engagement Using political and development communication along with case studies from selected countries in these regions the volume addresses human rights policies diplomatic practices democratization good governance identity politics terrorism collective action gendered crimes political psychology and citizen journalism as paradigms for sustainable growth Through practical experiences and field research in the selected countries scholars show how personal and national freedoms as well as business deals have been negotiated in a bid to create a new socioeconomic culture within the nations

American Holiday Postcards, 1905-1915 Daniel Gifford, 2013-08-29 In the early 20th century postcards were one of the most important and popular expressions of holiday sentiment in American culture Millions of such postcards circulated among networks of community and kin as part of a larger American postcard craze However their uses and meanings were far from universal This book argues that holiday postcards circulated primarily among rural and small town Northern white women with Anglo Saxon and Germanic heritages Through analysis of a broad range of sources Daniel Gifford recreates the history of postcards to account for these specific audiences and reconsiders the postcard phenomenon as an image based conversation among exclusive groups of Americans A variety of narratives are thus revealed the debates generated by the Country Life Movement the empowering manifestations of the New Woman the civic privileges of whiteness and the role of emerging technologies From Santa Claus to Easter bunnies flag waving turkeys to gun toting cupids holiday postcards at first seem to be amusing expressions of a halcyon past Yet with knowledge of audience and historical conflicts this book demonstrates how the postcard images reveal deep divides at the height of the Progressive Era

Capitalism's Eye Kevin Hetherington, 2011-02-11 Capitalism's Eye is an extremely ambitious cultural history of how people experienced commodities in the era of industrial expansion Writing against the dominant argument that the society of the spectacle emerged fully formed in the mid nineteenth century Kevin Hetherington explains that the emergence of a culture of mass consumption dominated by visual experience was a much slower process not truly ascendant until after the First World War Looking at the department stores home life and the great exhibitions around the turn of the last century Capitalism's Eye promises to transform how we understand both the cultural history of capitalism in America and Europe and the historical roots of the mediated spectacle that dominates our world today

Political Dramaturgies and Theatre Spectatorship Liz Tomlin, 2019-06-13 What do we mean when we describe theatre as political today How might theatre makers provocations for change need to be differently designed when addressing the precarious spectator subject of twenty first century neoliberalism In this important study Liz Tomlin interrogates the influential theories of Jacques Rancière to propose a new framework of analysis through which contemporary political dramaturgies can be investigated Drawing in particular on Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe Lilie Chouliaraki and Judith Butler Tomlin argues that the capacities of the contemporary and future spectator to be effected or affected by politically engaged theatre need to be urgently re-evaluated Central to this study is Tomlin's theorized figuration of the neoliberal spectator subject as precarious individualized and ironic with a reduced capacity for empathy agency and the ability to imagine better futures This in turn leads to a predilection for a response to injustice that is driven by a concern for the feelings of the subject self rather than concern for the suffering other These characteristics are argued to shape even those spectator subjects towards the left of the political spectrum thus necessitating a careful reconsideration of new and long standing dramaturgies of political provocation Dramaturgies examined include the ironic invitations of Made in China and Martin Crimp the exploration of affect in Kieran Hurley's Heads Up the new sincerity that characterizes the work of Andy Smith the turn to the staging of the spectators other in Developing Artists Queens of Syria and Chris Thorpe and Rachel Chavkin's Confirmation and the community activism of Common Wealth's The Deal Versus the People
