Didier Drogba Didier Drogba, 2009-08 Didier Drogba is one of the most talented and also most unpredictable players in English football Brought to Chelsea by Jose Mourinho after success with Marseille in France he quickly became one of the most lethal strikers in the Premiership and helped Chelsea to the highest success But then Mourinho whom Drogba idolised and whose Foreword reveals the admiration is mutual departed and the revolving door of managers that followed saw Drogba disaffected injured left out of the side and the nadir sent off in the 2008 Champions League final But now under the new coach Guus Hiddink he is fit again and scoring high pressure goals and a match for any defence Characteristically Drogba first published his autobiography in French and not for him the empty succession of clichés about a great bunch of lads and a game of ninety minutes This is a story of growing up in West Africa then an unsettling emigration to France and a rise to the highest echelon of football there before Chelsea's money came beckoning It is a controversial book Drogba found Chelsea in his first months a thoroughly unwelcoming and lonely place and about much more than football in his native Ivory Coast Drogba is a hero and even something of a political campaigner for whom peace and prosperity there is more important than any football bauble Didier Drogba plays for Chelsea and the Ivory Coast
