Dirt By Terence McLaughlin:

Dirt Terence McLaughlin, 2018-01-31 Delve into the fascinating world of dirt in this history of culture cleanliness and our evolving perceptions of what is and isn't gross. In this engaging and often humorous study of life's imperfections, public health and hygiene authority Terence McLaughlin dissects our attitudes toward the filth that has accompanied society throughout human history. According to him, dirt is a matter of opinion. Cultural attitudes about everything from factory smoke to personal hygiene are constantly shifting with the economic and political exigencies of the era. McLaughlin cites Old Testament examples of cleanliness which unbeknownst at the time helped protect the observant from the plague. The famous baths of ancient Rome were seen as progress for personal hygiene and later scorned by Christians who rejected all things Roman. With a litany of fascinating examples, McLaughlin sheds light on how we accept or reject substances. Dirt is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand how we shape our environment. A Crisis of Waste? Martin O'Brien, 2012-11-12

This book takes a measured look at the crisis of waste in modern society and it does so historically, sociologically, and critically. It tells stories about past and present crises of waste and puts them in their appropriate social and industrial contexts. From Charles Dickens to Don DeLillo, from the internal combustion engine to fish fingers, from kitchen grease to the Tour de France, this book digs deep into society's dust piles and emerges with untold treasures of the imagination. The

Toilet Papers Sim Van Der Ryn, 1999-08-01 A classic is back in print. One of the favorite books of the 1970s back to the landers, The Toilet Papers is an informative, inspiring, and irreverent look at how people have dealt with their wastes through the centuries. In a historical survey, Van der Ryn provides the basic facts concerning human wastes and describes safe designs for toilets that reduce water consumption and avert the necessity for expensive and unreliable treatment systems. The Toilet Papers provides do-it-yourself plans for a basic compost privy and a variety of graywater systems. Entry Points Carin

Kuoni, Chelsea Haines, 2016-01-22 Providing a lively snapshot of the state of art and social justice today on a global level, Entry Points accompanies the inaugural Vera List Center Prize for Art and Politics launched at The New School on the occasion of the center's twentieth anniversary. This book captures some of the most significant worldwide examples of art and social justice and introduces an interested audience of artists, policy makers, scholars, and writers to new ways of thinking about how justice is defined, advanced, and practiced through the arts. In so doing, it assembles some of the latest scholarship in this field while refining our vocabulary for speaking about social justice, social engagement, community enhancement, empowerment, and even art itself. The book's first half contains three essays by Thomas Keenan, Jo o Ribas, and Sharon Sliwinski that map the field of art and social justice. These essays are accompanied by more than twenty profiles of recent artist projects that consist of brief essays and artist pages. This curated and carefully considered map of artists and projects identifies key moments in art and social justice. The book's second half consists of an in-depth analysis of Theaster Gates's The Dorchester Projects, which won the inaugural Vera List Prize for Art and Politics. Produced to complement the project's exhibition at the Sheila C Johnson Design Center Parsons School of Design in September 2013 this analysis illuminates Gates's rich complex and exemplary work This section includes an interview between Gates and Vera List Center director Carin Kuoni essays by Horace D Ballard Jr Romi N Crawford Shannon Jackson and Mabel O Wilson and a number of responses to The Dorchester Projects by faculty in departments across The New School Published by Duke University Press and the Vera List Center for Art and Politics at The New School

Victorian Contagion Chung-jen Chen, 2019-08-29 Victorian Contagion Risk and Social Control in the Victorian Literary Imagination examines the literary and cultural production of contagion in the Victorian era and the way that production participated in a moral economy of surveillance and control In this book I attempt to make sense of how the discursive practice of contagion governed the interactions and correlations between medical science literary creation and cultural imagination Victorians dealt with the menace of contagion by theorizing a working motto in claiming the goodness and godliness in cleanliness which was theorized realized and radicalized both through practice and imagination The Victorian discourse around cleanliness and contagion including all its treatments and preventions developed into a culture of medicalization a perception of surveillance a politics of health an economy of morality and a way of thinking This book is an attempt to understand the literary and cultural elements which contributed to fear and anticipation of contagion and to explain why and how these elements still matter to us today

The Book Of Lists David Wallechinsky, Amy Wallace, 2009-08-06 The first and best compendium of facts weirder than fiction of intriguing information and must talk about trivia has spawned many imitators but none as addictive or successful For nearly three decades the editors researched curious facts unusual statistics and the incredible stories behind them The most entertaining and informative of these have been brought together in this edition
