Labour Mobility in the European Union as an Example of the Transnationalization of Employment Torben Krings, 2024-05-13 This book examines the changing significance of intra European labor mobility in the 21st century. The focus is on the driving forces, the labor market effects and the regulation of this mobility. It is shown that there is a demand for workers with different qualifications in the post industrial societies of Western Europe. This demand is primarily met by migration from the enlarged EU. However, this is no longer traditional labor migration but the mobility of EU citizens. This brings with it new opportunities but also challenges in a transnational mobility space which is also a space of inequality.
