Magic Formula Harald Rothmel, 2012-12-28. I wrote this book as a proposal; it's meant to be a tool for you to access the intrinsic joy, happiness and fulfillment in your life. It's my vision that this book becomes full of you. I believe that we are the creators of our own reality. I don't want to create anything in your life. I am not here to tell you what or how to do. You know the best. You are the expert on yourself. I only wrote the words that I found strictly necessary. Simplicity is one of the major keys to perfect understanding and happiness. I wish this book to come alive through your inspiration and creativity. I wish to contribute to your growth, learning and expansion because expansion is our natural state. I would love this book to be a contribution for you to let go of resistance and insistence and come back into the flow of your life and regain your natural state of health, ease and well-being. Just let go and become finding the message that we want to tell ourselves is crucial in my point of view. The message that comes out of your inner wisdom, the still small voice within your inner truth, your soul, whatever term you prefer to use, not the message of your head that one you listen to all day long. No, I am talking about your message. I wish that this book can assist you in changing aspects of your life that you would like to change. That for it is a practical book that you can use every day. Please fill it with your own words, drawings, scribbles, etc. Let it grow with you.

Portuguese Literature and the Environment Victor K. Mendes, Patrícia Vieira, 2019-06-03. Portuguese Literature and the Environment explores the relationship between Portuguese literature and the environment from Medieval times to the present. From the centrality of nature in Medieval poetry through the bucolic verse of the Renaissance all the way to the Romantic and post-Romantic nostalgia for a pristine natural or rural landscape under threat in the wake of industrialization, Portuguese literature has frequently reflected on the connection between humans and the natural world. More recently, the postcolonial turn in contemporary literature has highlighted the contrast between the environment of the former colonies and that of Portugal. Contributors to the collection examine how Portuguese writers engage with the environment and have incorporated nature in their texts not only to prompt social, political or philosophical reflections on human society but also as a way to learn from non-humans. The book is organized into three sections. The first explores the relationship between Portuguese philosophy, historiography, culture and environmental issues. The second section discusses the link between literary texts and the environment from the Renaissance to 1900. The final section analyzes the connection between literary movements or specific authors and environmental change from 1900 to today. Scholars of literature, Latin American studies literature and environmental studies will find this volume especially useful
