Makers Of Contemporary Islam:

Makers of Contemporary Islam John L. Esposito, John O. Voll, 2001-05-03 In this timely and important work John Esposito and John Voll explore the development of contemporary Islamic movements and thought through the biographies of nine major activist intellectuals who represent a wide range of Muslim societies. Many Muslims have combined revivalist activism with intellectual efforts but only a few have achieved significant international visibility and influence. By examining the lives and work of nine such internationally recognized figures, Esposito and Voll provide a new understanding of the intellectual foundations of contemporary Islamic awareness and politics. Included are profiles of Ismail Ragi al-Faruqi (U.S.), Palestine, Khurshid Ahmad (India), Pakistan, Maryam Jameelah (U.S.), Pakistan, Hasan Hanafi (Sudan), Rashid Ghannouchi (Tunisia), Hasan al-Turabi (Sudan), Abdolkarim Soroush (Iran), Anwar Ibrahim (Malaysia), and Abdurrahman Wahid (Indonesia). These thinkers contributed to some of the most significant intellectual and activist developments in the Muslim world during the 1980s and 1990s, the period during which Islamic movements became a major force in Muslim societies and international affairs. They helped to organize and lead the movements of Islamic renewal and provided the conceptual foundations for the programs those movements advocate. Together they represent a distinctive phase in the evolution of Islamic thinking, the ongoing effort to create an effective synthesis of modernity and Islamic tradition. Their work supplies the core of the Islamic resurgence of the 1990s and the foundation for what it can become in the twenty-first century.

Contemporary Islam Abdul Aziz Said, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Meena Sharify-Funk, 2006-09-27

Contemporary Islam provides a counterweight to the prevailing opinions of Islamic thought as conservative and static with a preference for violence over dialogue. It gathers together a collection of eminent scholars from around the world who tackle issues such as intellectual pluralism, gender, the ethics of political participation, human rights, non-violence, and religious harmony. This is a highly topical and important study which gives a progressive outlook for Islam's role in modern politics and society.

Democracy after the Arab Spring John L. Esposito, Tamara Sonn, John O. Voll, 2015-10-01 The landscape of the Middle East has changed dramatically since 2011, as have the political arena and the discourse around democracy. In Islam and Democracy after the Arab Spring, John L. Esposito, John Voll, and Tamara Sonn examine the state of democracy in Muslim majority societies today. Applying a twenty-first century perspective to the question of whether Islam is compatible with democracy, they redirect the conversation toward a new politics of democracy that transcends both secular authoritarianism and Political Islam. While the opposition movements of the Arab Spring vary from country to country, each has raised questions regarding equality, economic justice, democratic participation, and the relationship between Islam and democracy in their respective countries. Does democracy require a secular political regime? Are religious movements the most effective opponents of authoritarian secularist regimes? Esposito, Voll, and Sonn examine these questions and shed light on how these opposition movements reflect the new global realities of media communication and sources of influence and power. Positioned for a broad readership of scholars and students, policy makers, and media experts, Islam and Democracy after the Arab Spring will quickly become a go-to for all who watch the Middle East inside and outside of academia. Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi, 2008-12-18 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism. Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation-state is founded? What does this reveal about the future of Turkey? And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East? Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon, tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day. It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers: Ali Bula Rasim, Zdeněk Smetzel, İhan Kutluer, Ersin Nazif Gürdoğan, and Abdurrahman Dilipak, who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam. They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values, arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy. Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey's own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking Rāshid al-Ghannūshī Mohammad Dawood Sofi, 2018-04-24 This book discusses various dynamic facets of the life of Rāshid al-Ghannūshī a distinguished Islamic thinker and activist not only in Tunisia and North Africa but in the entire Muslim world It especially focuses on those aspects related to his intellectual understanding and response to a number of critical contemporary issues In the 21st Century Rāshid al-Ghannūshī is considered as the most moderate among the Muslim thinkers and intellectuals particularly when it comes to the question of Islam democracy compatibility and power sharing theory This book also offers an account of a previously little known yet much talked about Muslim voice in the post Arab Spring era It further shows how the intellectual Muslim thinkers own perspectives and expectations from Islamic movements and their interaction with the western oriented local leadership as well as their secular policies color their understanding of Islam and various other major issues Studies in Contemporary Islam, 1999 The Rise of the Islamic Movement in Sudan (1945-1989) Mustafa A.
