Kay, Edward Lahiff, 2013-09-13 Three fourths of the world's poor are rural poor Most of the rural poor remain dependent on land based livelihoods for their incomes and reproduction despite significant livelihood diversification in recent years Land issue remains critical to any development discourse today Market led agrarian reform MLAR has gained prominence since the early 1990s as an alternative to state led land reforms This neoliberal policy is based on the inversion of what its proponents see as the features of earlier approaches and calls for redistribution via privatized decentralized transactions between willing sellers and willing buyers Its proponents especially those associated with the World Bank have claimed success where the policy has been implemented but such claims have been contested by independent scholars as well as by peasant movements who are struggling to gain access to land This book presents three thematic papers and six country studies The thematic papers address issues of formalisation of property rights gendered land rights and neoliberal enclosure These studies demonstrate the pervasive influence of neoliberal ideas on property rights and rural development debates well beyond the core question of land redistribution The country cases bring together experiences from Brazil Guatemala El Salvador Philippines South Africa and Egypt Common findings include the success of landowners in minimising the impact of reform and a lack of post transfer support translating into marginal impact on poverty The limitations of the market led approach and the implications of the studies presented here for the future of agrarian reform are considered in the editors introduction This book was a special issue of The Third World Quarterly South Africa, 1909 Enhancing Urban Safety and Security Un-Habitat, 2012-08-21 Enhancing Urban Safety and Security addresses three major threats to the safety and security of cities crime and violence insecurity of tenure and forced evictions and natural and human made disasters It analyses worldwide trends with respect to each of these threats paying particular attention to their underlying causes and impacts as well as to the good policies and best practices that have been adopted at the city national and international levels in order to address these threats The report adopts a human security perspective concerned with the safety and security of people rather than of states and highlights issues that can be addressed through appropriate urban policy planning design and governance Securing Land and Resource Rights in Africa Munyaradzi Saruchera, 2004 American Fruit Grower, 1906 Africa Analysis, 2004 A fortnightly bulletin on financial and political trends Rural New Yorker, 1906 California Cultivator, 1909 Governance Feminism Janet Halley, Prabha Kotiswaran, Rachel Rebouché, Hila Shamir, 2019-03-26 An interdisciplinary multifaceted look at feminist engagements with governance across the global North and global South Governance Feminism Notes from the Field brings together nineteen chapters from leading feminist scholars and activists to critically describe and assess contemporary feminist engagements with state and state like power Gathering examples from North America South America Europe Asia and the Middle East it complements and expands on the companion volume Governance Feminism An Introduction Its chapters argue that governance feminism GF is institutionally diverse and globally distributed emerging from traditional sites of state power as well as from various forms of governance and operating at the grassroots level in the private sector in civil society and in international relations The book begins by confronting the key role that crime and punishment play in GFeminist projects Here contributors explore the ideological and political conditions under which this branch of GF became so robust and rethink the carceral turn Other chapters speak to another face of GFeminism feminists finding in mundane and seemingly unspectacular bureaucratic tools leverage to bring about change in policy and governance practices Several contributions highlight the political strategic and ethical challenges that feminists and LGBT activists must negotiate to play on the governmental field The book concludes with a focus on feminist interventions in postcolonial legal and political orders looking at new policy spaces opened up by conflict postconflict and occupation Providing a clear cross cutting critical lens through which to map developments in feminist governance around the world Governance Feminism Notes from the Field makes sense of the costs and benefits of current feminist realities to reimagine feminist futures Contributors Libby Adler Northeastern U Aziza Ahmed Northeastern U Elizabeth Bernstein Barnard College Amy J Cohen Ohio State U Karen Engle U of Texas at Austin Jacob Gersen Harvard U Leigh Goodmark U of Maryland Aeyal Gross Tel Aviv U Aya Gruber U of Colorado Boulder Janet Halley Harvard U Rema Hammami Birzeit U Palestine Vanja Hamzi U of London Isabel Cristina Jaramillo Sierra Prabha Kotiswaran King s College London Maleiha Malik King s College London Vasuki Nesiah New York U Dianne Otto Melbourne Law School Helen Reece Darren Rosenblum Pace U Jeannie Suk Gersen Harvard U Mariana Valverde U of Toronto
