I Say to You Gabrielle Lynch, 2011-09-26

In 2007 a disputed election in Kenya erupted into a two month political crisis that led to the deaths of more than a thousand people and the displacement of almost seven hundred thousand. Much of the violence fell along ethnic lines the principal perpetrators of which were the Kalenjin who lashed out at other communities in the Rift Valley. What makes this episode remarkable compared to many other instances of ethnic violence is that the Kalenjin community is a recent construct the group has only existed since the mid twentieth century. Drawing on rich archival research and vivid oral testimony I Say to You is a timely analysis of the creation development political relevance and popular appeal of the Kalenjin identity as well as its violent potential. Uncovering the Kalenjin's roots Gabrielle Lynch examines the ways in which ethnic groups are socially constructed and renegotiated over time. She demonstrates how historical narratives of collective achievement migration injustice and persecution constantly evolve. As a consequence ethnic identities help politicians mobilize support and help ordinary people lay claim to space power and wealth. This kind of ethnic politics Lynch reveals encourages a sense of ethnic difference and competition which can spiral into violent confrontation and retribution.

Kenya, Bridging Ethnic Divides

Nderitu, Alice Wairimu, 2018-12-12. The National Cohesion and Integration Commission NCIC was set up to facilitate and promote equality of opportunity good relations harmony and peaceful coexistence between persons of the different ethnic and racial communities of Kenya and to advise the Government on all aspects thereof after the violence that followed the December 2007 elections. In Kenya Bridging Ethnic Divides A Commissioner's Experience on Cohesion and Integration Commissioner Alice Wairim Nderit looks behind the scenes at the NCIC's efforts to ensure peaceful coexistence. Such as working with elders mediating confidentially between political leaders at the highest levels and co-founding and working as first Co-Chair of Uwiano Platform for Peace a conflict prevention agency largely credited with leading efforts in ensuring peaceful processes during the 2010 Constitutional referendum and 2013 General elections. The book tells of NCIC's efforts in grappling with the seemingly intractable problem of managing the negative consequence of ethnic differences on questions such as Why is Kenya so ethnically polarised? Why is an ethnic group the key defining factor in Kenyan politics? What hope is there for an inclusive Kenya? The book shows that positive policies and intra and inter ethnic spaces can be used to counter negative influences that lead to fear exclusion and violence. The diversity of Kenya's ethnicities and races need not be a pretext for conflict but a source of truly national identity. It proves that dialogue on understanding differences and commonalities leads to improved relationships and understanding on societal dynamics. This in turn contributes to preventing and transforming conflicts through appropriate inclusion policies identifying entry points for change as well as opportunities to tackle the norms and behaviours that underpin structural disparities.

Wuodha Washington M. Osiro, 2013-04. Washington introduces his best friends from school to his father whose shocking and harsh but eventually prescient response to the introduction reveals a post independent Kenyan society that is markedly different from the one the son has hitherto shared with the friends. The father's brutal honesty leaves an indelible mark on the little boy's psyche and sets Washington off on a long and oftentimes arduous journey that takes him from the rural familiar and safe albeit hardy surroundings of Apondo Nyanza Kenya to the sandy beaches of San Diego Southern California finally settling him in the world famous climes of Silicon Valley Northern California Washington repeats a journey first undertaken by thousands in the 1700s A journey that became an annual ritual for millions thereafter all in their pursuit of their dream their American Dream Kenyan Foreign and Security Policies Kipyego Cheluget, Stephen Wright, 2025-10-16 Kipyego Cheluget and Stephen Wright evaluate the legacy of Kenya's first president Jomo Kenyatta Following a nationalist uprising and brutal colonial repression Kenya became independent in December 1963 With much of the agricultural land still under European settler control Jomo Kenyatta promoted foreign and security policies to balance Kenyan African and settler interests attracting foreign investment into the new country Kenyatta's programs however favored the West and established a growing need for British and American security guarantees to sustain Kenya in an increasingly unstable Eastern African region In this book Cheluget and Wright show that despite the growing pressures within Kenyan civil society for diversification of policies and redistribution of economic wealth Kenyatta consistently maintained pro western policies until his death in 1978 This book is split into 3 parts Part I discusses the growth of Kenyan nationalism the end of the colonial era and the birth of the Kenyan State Part II considers the political economy and development strategies of the Kenyan State Part III assesses the degree of continuity of the succeeding leadership portrayed from the Jomo Kenyatta presidency Through this detailed analysis the authors examine Kenyatta's policies and examine how successive Kenyan presidents have largely maintained his policies and venerated his legacy Historical Reflections on Kenya Munene, Macharia, 2015-03-16 This book thematically tackles issues that relate to the perpetual struggle between the forces of control and the forces of mental and intellectual liberation in Africa and Kenya in particular The book addresses the colonial legacy of poverty creation as well as the socio political conditioning of Africans to dislike each other and to be irresponsible and disunited in the face of external threats Poverty hatred of other Africans and excessive dependency on European powers can be traced to the policies adopted by colonial officials Related to these issues is post colonial Kenya's attempts to address the political developments the involvement of different types of media in those developments Kenya's foreign policy and the problem of political party transition Ultimately there are topical issues that continue to affect Kenya which include the question of coalition politics the lessons of the 2002 elections the media and corruption parliament and foreign policy and Africa's relations with the United States of America The Politics of Transition in Kenya, 1995-1998 Macharia Munene, 2001 This Man Moi-- Professor of Politics Or Manipulative Tyrant? Kiprono arap Kemei, 2002 The Weekly Review, 1998 The Black Man's Democracy William Robert Ochieng', 2008 New African, 2002 Comprehensive Names Dictionary Viterlis Wafula Sitati, 2007 Current Contents, 1999 The Architecture of Corruption in Kenya Pius Kipketer Kidombo, 2007 The Annual Register 1998 Keesing's Worldwide, 1999 Discover a unique comprehensive narrative of the year's events provided by 90 specialized
