Murray Smith Engaging Characters Fiction Emotion And:

Engaging Characters Murray Smith, 2022-05-12 Characters those fictional agents populating the fictional worlds we spend so much time absorbed in are ubiquitous in our lives We track their fortunes judge their actions and respond to them with anger amusement and affection indeed the whole palette of human emotions Powerfully drawn characters transcend their stories entering into our imaginations and deliberations about the actual world acting as analogies and points of reference And yet there has been remarkably little sustained and systematic reflection on these creatures that absorb so much of our attention and emotional lives In Engaging Characters Murray Smith sets out a comprehensive analysis of character exploring the role of characters in our experience of narrative and fiction Smith's analysis focuses on film and also illuminates character in literature opera song cartoons new and social media At the heart of this account is an explanation of the capacity of characters to move us Teasing out the various dimensions of character Smith explores the means by which films draw us close to characters or hold us at a distance from them and how our beliefs and attitudes are formed and sometimes reformed by these encounters Integrating these arguments with research on emotion in philosophy psychology evolutionary theory and anthropology Engaging Characters advances an account of the nature of fictional characters and their functions in fiction imagination and human experience In this revised twenty fifth anniversary edition of Engaging Characters Smith refines and extends the arguments of the first edition with a substantial new introduction reviewing the debates on emotion empathy and film spectatorship that the book has inspired Engaging Characters, 1995

Screening Characters Johannes Riis, Aaron Taylor, 2019-03-06 Characters are central to our experiences of screened fictions and invite a host of questions The contributors to Screening Characters draw on archival material interviews philosophical inquiry and conceptual analysis in order to give new thought provoking answers to these queries Providing multifaceted accounts of the nature of screen characters contributions are organized around a series of important subjects including issues of class race ethics and generic types as they are encountered in moving image media These topics in turn are personified by such memorable figures as Cary Grant Jon Hamm Audrey Hepburn and Seul gi Kim in addition to avatars online personalities animated characters and the ensembles of shows such as The Sopranos Mad Men and Breaking Bad

The Palgrave Handbook of the Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Laura T. Di Summa, Shawn Loht, 2019-10-30 This handbook brings together essays in the philosophy of film and motion pictures from authorities across the spectrum It boasts contributions from philosophers and film theorists alike with many essays employing pluralist approaches to this interdisciplinary subject Core areas treated include film ontology film structure psychology authorship narrative and viewer emotion Emerging areas of interest including virtual reality video games and nonfictional and autobiographical film also have dedicated chapters Other areas of focus include the film medium's intersection with contemporary social issues film's kinship to other art forms and the influence of historically seminal schools of thought in the philosophy of film Of emphasis in many of the essays is the relationship and overlap of analytic and continental perspectives in this subject

Cognitive Media Theory Ted Nannicelli, Paul Taberham, 2014-03-26 Across the academy scholars are debating the question of what bearing scientific inquiry has upon the humanities The latest addition to the AFI Film Readers series Cognitive Media Theory takes up this question in the context of film and media studies This collection of essays by internationally recognized researchers in film and media studies psychology and philosophy offers film and media scholars and advanced students an introduction to contemporary cognitive media theory an approach to the study of diverse media forms and content that draws upon both the methods and explanations of the sciences and the humanities Exploring topics that range from color perception to the moral appraisal of characters to our interactive engagement with videogames Cognitive Media Theory showcases the richness and diversity of cognitivist research This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film and media but to anyone interested in the possibility of a productive relationship between the sciences and humanities

Characters in Film and Other Media Jens Eder, 2025-07-29 Characters are central to the creation and experience of films and other media Their cultural significance is profound but they also raise a wide range of questions This book provides a comprehensive theory that guides the analysis and interpretation of characters across four dimensions as represented beings with physical psychological and social characteristics as artefacts with aesthetic structures as meaningful symbols and as symptoms of socio cultural origins and effects Integrating insights from film media and literary studies as well as philosophy psychology and sociology the book offers a broad range of approaches for understanding characters and the emotional responses they evoke Richly illustrated and offering practical tools along with case studies of numerous characters from different genres of films this book will be invaluable to scholars and students of film and media studies and related disciplines as well as artistic practitioners

Reintegrating Severance Nora M. Isacoff, Jennifer Dawes, 2024-07-22 Manifesting the zeitgeist of our post pandemic world Apple TV's Severance probes the margins of work life balance the medicalization of normal human emotions and the turbulence of disinformation resistance and reclamation Fundamentally the series grapples with systemization how we organize and construct our histories art and architecture social orders and bodies and minds Written for both fans and scholars Reintegrating Severance collects fifteen critical essays each offering deep insights into an issue spurred by the series Constructing History explores identity in the context of historical revisionism and corporate mythology Art Agency Autonomy and Alienation dives deep into the political theories that earlier chapters have touched upon finally Multifaceted Bodies and Minds strays from and ultimately finds a way back to the intuitive wisdom and intraconnection of the self

Touching and Being Touched Gabriele Brandstetter, Gerko Egert, Sabine Zubarik, 2013-10-29 Touch is a fundamental element of dance The time forms and contact zones of touch are means of expression both of self reflexivity and the interaction of the dancers Liberties and limits creative possibilities and taboos of touch convey insights into the aisthesis of the different forms of dance into their dynamics and communicative structure as well as into the production and regulation of affects Touching and Being Touched assembles seventeen interdisciplinary papers focusing on the question of how forms and practices of touch are connected with the evocation of feelings Are these feelings evoked in different ways in tango Contact improvisation European and Japanese contemporary dance The contributors to this volume dance literature and film scholars as well as philosophers and neuroscientists provide in depth discussions of the modes of transfer between touch and being touched Drawing on the assumptions of various theories of body emotion and senses how can we interpret the processes of tactile touch and of being touched emotionally Is there a specific spectrum of emotions activated during these processes within both the spectator and the dancer How can the relationship of movement touch and emotion be analyzed in relation to kinesthesia and empathy Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Jinhee Choi, 2009-02-09 Designed for classroom use this authoritative anthology presents key selections from the best contemporary work in philosophy of film The featured essays have been specially chosen for their clarity philosophical depth and consonance with the current movement towards cognitive film theory Eight sections with introductions cover topics such as the nature of film film as art documentary cinema narration and emotion in film film criticism and film's relation to knowledge and morality Issues addressed include the objectivity of documentary films fear of movie monsters and moral questions surrounding the viewing of pornography Replete with examples and discussion of moving pictures throughout Terrorism, Media, Liberation John David Slocum, 2005 Historical overview of terrorism and how it has been depicted in the media especially films and television In turn these depictions have shaped terrorist tactics and public reaction to terrorism Provided by publisher Emotion, Fiction, and Rationality Jinhee Choi, 1999 Movie Moods Greg M. Smith, 1998 Giorgio Scerbanenco Marco Paoli, 2016 This book discusses Giorgio Scerbanenco's representation of criminal environments in his Duca Lamberti series 1966-69 focusing in particular on three innovative aspects characterising Italian crime fiction in the 1960s Scerbanenco's portrayal of the urban space violence and gender and its cognitive and emotional impact on the reader On the Verge of Tears Michele Byers, David Lavery, 2010 Contemplating how and why art music film literature theatre theory and material artifacts make us weep this collection of essays considers the ways in which tears implicate us in tragedy comedy and horror The Place of the Audience Mark Jancovich, Lucy Faire, Sarah Stubbings, 2003-04-28 It has been a recurring complaint both within and against film studies that it has largely ignored the activities of audiences This book aims to address this absence as compared to television studies and to explain its cause The authors argue that there is a social context in which the consumption of film can be understood or studied historically demonstrating that a concentration on the place of film consumption within the changing cultural politics of the city can offer a compelling and productive focus of analysis This book examines not only the different meanings of different sites of film exhibition and distribution city centre cinemas local cinemas art house cinemas multiplexes terrestrial television transmission video rental and retail and satellite cable but also the meanings of the activities of film consumption associated with these sites Through use of archival materials and ethnographic studies of the audience the book examines the meanings of film consumption from the earliest film showings up to the 21st century Crisis and Capitalism in Contemporary Argentine Cinema Joanna Page,2009-05-22 This first in depth English language study of Argentine fiction films released since the mid 1990s explains how they have registered Argentinas recent experience of capitalism neoliberalism and economic crisis Quality Popular Television Mark Jancovich,James Lyons,2003 No Marketing Blurb Blind Spots and Sight Lines Maureen Elizabeth Lauder,2009 Caught in Play Peter Stromberg,2009-05-28 Caught in Play reveals that though we engage stories games and images for fun it does not follow that entertainment is trivial in its effect on our lives

Visual Authorship Torben Kragh Grodal,Bente Larsen,Iben Thorving Laursen,2005 Visual Authorship is a collection of essays which offers a new approach to the study of authorship The contributors point out that individual creativity is essential in the richly faceted media landscape of today The individual creativity and the role of authorship are discussed in relation to film television computer games and the Internet Theories of cognition and emotion offer new tools for the understanding of visual aesthetics they explain why works of art are created by individuals and not by discourses and ideologies Several contributors analyse in detail the works of Lars von Trier
