Muslim Politics In India:

The Muslim Politics of India Shri Kumar Srivastava, 2012 The Muslim Politics of India, 2019 Muslim Politics in India Srikanta Ghosh, 1987 Muslim Politics in India Hamid Dalwai, 2023-11-27 Hamid Dalwai has been called a Muslim modernizer who relentlessly worked towards promoting reason and justice among Muslims. Historian Ram Guha writes He worked tirelessly to get Muslims to shed their social and religious prejudices. The pursuit of gender equality was of pre eminent importance to him and he waged a long battle against triple talaq. Born in a lower middle class family in rural Maharashtra in 1932 Dalwai was a gifted writer who broke on to the Marathi literary scene as a highly promising writer. His novel Indhan is now recognized as a significant contribution to Marathi literature. Dalwai was attracted by the ideas of Ram Manohar Lohia and became an active member of the Socialist Party. Dalwai's writing displayed the same passion and forthrightness, eloquence and commitment which informed all his actions as a social worker. Above all was his courage of conviction which made him brave the various threats to his life and family. More than once was he physically assaulted. Dalwai's Muslim Politics in India is arguably the most perceptive analysis of Muslim politics to appear in post Independence India. It retains the same freshness and relevance which it had when it was first published some three decades back. First published in 1968, an enlarged edition was later published under the title Muslim Politics in Secular India by Hind Pocket Books, Delhi in 1972. This translation, the first of its kind, is a product of numerous meetings which Hamid Dalwai had with noted poet Dilip Chitre during which the latter made extensive notes and rendered them into articles in English. It combines his most evocative and fiery essays and emerges as a fine voice of reason relevant to our contemporary times.

An Overview of Muslim Politics in India Kunwar Muhammad Ashraf, 2001 Muslim Politics in Bihar Mohammad Sajjad, 2014-08-13 This book studies the engagement of various Muslim communities with Bihar politics from colonial times to present day India. It debunks several myths in highlighting Muslim resistance to the Two Nation theory and counters the Isolation Syndrome faced by Muslim communities after Independence. Using rare archival sources and hitherto unexamined Urdu texts, this book offers a nuanced exploration of complex themes such as the struggle against Bengali hegemony, communalism, regionalism and alienation before Independence, recent language politics, the political assertion of low caste Muslims in current Bihar as well as their quest for social and gender justice. An important contribution to the study of South Asian Islam, this book will interest students and scholars of modern Indian history, politics, sociology, religion, gender and minority studies Lives of Muslims in India Abdul Shaban, 2018-01-10 The fast consolidating identities along religious and ethnic lines in recent years have considerably minoritised Muslims in India The wide ranging essays in this volume focus on the intensified exclusionary practices against Indian Muslims highlighting how amidst a politics of violence confusing policy frameworks on caste and class lines and institutionalised riot systems the community has also suffered from the lack of leadership from within At the same time Indian Muslims have emerged as a mass around which the politics of vote bank appeasement foreigners Pakistanis within the country and so on are innovated and played upon making them further apprehensive about asserting their legitimate right to development The important issues of the double marginalisation of Muslim women and attempts to reform the Muslim Personal Law by some civil society groups is also discussed Contributed by academics activists and journalists the articles discuss issues of integration exclusion and violence and attempt to understand categories such as identity minority multiculturalism and nationalism with regard to and in the context of Indian Muslims This second edition with a new introduction will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in sociology politics history cultural studies minority studies Islamic studies policy studies and development studies as well as policymakers civil society activists and those in media and journalism Siyasi Muslims Hilal Ahmed, 2019-04-25 How do we make sense of the Muslims of India Do they form a political community Does the imagined conflict between Islam and modernity affect the Muslims political behaviour in this country Are Muslim religious institutions mosques and madrasas directly involved in politics Do they instruct the community to vote strategically in all elections What are Muslim issues Is it only about triple talaq Are Muslims truly nationalists Or do they continue to remain just an other in India While these questions intrigue us we seldom debate to find pragmatic answers to these queries Examining the everydayness of Muslims in contemporary India Hilal Ahmed offers an evocative story of politics and Islam in India which goes beyond the given narratives of Muslim victimhood and Islamic separation Passionate politics Indrajit Roy, 2023-01-31 Passions matter to politics Yet much of the work on passions in politics focuses on such spectacular events as social movements civil wars and revolutionary upheavals but ignores electoral politics as banal The contributors to this book trace the importance of passions to electoral politics with a focus on India's landmark 2019 General Elections which saw the decisive re election of Narendra Modi as the country's Prime Minister This book illustrates the economic social and cultural processes that shaped political passions in India during the summer of 2019 The contributors compel us to take seriously the structures of feeling in politics Such an approach requires interdisciplinarity Which is why the book brings together a stellar team of economists political scientists sociologists historians and geographers to explain Modi's resounding win Communalism in Muslim Politics and Troubles Over India Susruta Mukherji, 1947 Community and Consensus in Islam Farzana Shaikh, 2012-02 Community and Consensus in Islam first published in 1989 represented a bold attempt to introduce the role of ideas in the interpretation of Indo Muslim politics between 1860 and the Partition of India in 1947 It questioned the widely held view at the time that Indian Muslim politics of the period could be explained by reference to pragmatic interests alone. Instead, Farzana Shaikh argued that the influence of ideas rooted in Islamic tradition must form a crucial dimension of any wellgrounded explanation of the determinants of Indo-Muslim political practice. In this masterful study, the configurations of colonial politics in India are set against the backdrop of tensions between two contrasting intellectual traditions: the Islamic and the liberal democratic, to show how their different assumptions about the proper ends of political action sharpened the opposition between diverse constitutional positions that led to Partition. Today it stands as a vital contribution to the debate about this momentous event.
