My Life as a Fake Peter Carey, 2005-01-04 Fiendishly devious and addictively readable Peter Carey's My Life as a Fake is a moral labyrinth constructed around the uneasy relationship between literature and lying In steamy fetid Kuala Lumpur in 1972 Sarah Wode Douglass the editor of a London poetry journal meets a mysterious Australian named Christopher Chubb Chubb is a despised literary hoaxer carting around a manuscript likely filled with deceit But in this dubious manuscript Sarah recognizes a work of real genius But whose genius As Sarah tries to secure the manuscript Chubb draws her into a fantastic story of imposture murder kidnapping and exile a story that couldn't be true unless its teller were mad My Life as a Fake is Carey at his most audacious and entertaining My Life as a Fake Peter Carey, 2010-12-09 Melbourne the late 1940s A young conservative Australian poet named Christopher Chubb decides to teach his country a lesson about pretension and authenticity Choosing as his target the most avant garde of the literary magazines he submits for publication the entire oeuvre of one Bob McCorkle a working class poet of raw power and sexual frankness conveniently dead at twenty four and entirely the product of Chubb's imagination Not only does the magazine fall for the hoax but the local authorities also sue its editor for publishing obscenity At the trial someone uncannily resembling the faked photograph of the invented McCorkle leaps to his feet At this moment a horrified Chubb is confronted by the malevolent being he has himself manufactured

Peter Carey Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2010-03-10 Peter Carey writer of such celebrated works as Oscar and Lucinda True History of the Kelly Gang and His Illegal Self is one of Australia's most critically acclaimed novelists Deeply concerned with South Pacific culture especially the lives of its most downtrodden citizens Carey uses popular art as a tool for raising the consciousness of readers This book provides an introduction to the author's life as well as a guided overview of his body of work Designed for the fan and scholar alike this text features an alphabetized fully annotated listing of major terms in the Carey canon including fictional characters motifs historical events and themes Additional features include a listing of headwords a Carey history 44 reading and writing topics and bibliographies of primary and secondary sources A comprehensive index is included Who's Who? Maggie Nolan, Carrie Dawson, 2004 Brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in Australian literature

Critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake Nolan at Australian Catholic University Peter Carey Keyvan Allahyari,2023-04-11 Peter Carey The Making of a Global Novelist recounts Peter Carey s literary career from his emergence in the Australian literary scene as a contributor to local literary magazines to when he published his fiction exclusively with large conglomerate publishers As Australia s most decorated author for a period nearing half a century Carey s career gives unparalleled insights into the global contemporary publishing and the making of global literary prestige from the periphery and significant cultural currency for Australian literature and culture worldwide Carey s fiction is not only a product of the global dynamic in literary publishing of the last quarter of the twentieth century but also it holds something of its productive tension for Australian writing and writers Allahyari retraces the fraught synthesis of an individual literary proclivity with a growing commercial cultural appetite the coincidence of Carey s career with the conglomeration of global publishing pushed further towards anti elitist popular aesthetics Critics and Writers Speak Igor Maver,2006-01-01 This book of new critical essays and interviews with writers interrogates the current usage of the term and the category of the post colonial as a theoretical concept discourse and state of mind By looking at contemporary writing in English throughout the world it critically revisions the current practice of post colonial studies and calls attention to its significant weaknesses Literature as Translation/Translation as Literature Christopher Conti,James Gourley,2014-03-17 Broadly conceived literature consists of aesthetic and cultural processes that can be thought of as forms of translation By the same token translation requires the sort of creative or interpretive understanding usually associated with literature Literature as Translation Translation as Literature explores a number of themes centred on this shared identity of literature and translation as creative acts of interpretation and understanding The metaphor or motif of translation is the touchstone of this volume which looks at how an expanded idea of translation sheds light not just on features of literary composition and reception but also on modes of intercultural communication at a time when the pressures of globalization threaten local cultures with extinction The theory of ethical translation that has emerged in this context which fosters the practice of preserving the foreignness of the text at the risk of its misunderstanding bears relevance beyond current debates about world literature to the framing of contemporary social issues by dominant discourses like medicine as one contributor s study of the growing autism rights movement reveals The systematizing imperatives of translation that forcibly assimilate the foreign to the familiar like the systematizing imperatives of globalization are resisted in acts of creative understanding in which the particular or different finds sanctuary The overlooked role that the foreign word plays in the discourses that constitute subjectivity and national culture comes to light across the variegated concerns of this volume Contributions range from case studies of the emancipatory role translation has played in various historical and cultural contexts to the study of specific literary works that understand their own aesthetic processes and the interpretive and communicative processes of meaning more generally as forms of translation Several contributors including the English translators of Roberto Bolaño and Hans Blumenberg were prompted in their reflections on the creative and interpretive process of translation by their own accomplished work as translators. All are animated by the conviction that translation, whether regarded as the creative act of understanding of one culture by another, as the agent of political and social transformation, as the source of new truths in foreign linguistic environments, and not just the bearer of established ones, or as the limit of conceptuality outlined in the silhouette of the untranslatable, is a creative cultural force of the first importance.

Transmedia Creatures Francesca Saggini, Anna Enrichetta Soccio, 2018-10-19. On the 200th anniversary of the first edition of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, Transmedia Creatures presents studies of Frankenstein by international scholars from converging disciplines such as humanities, musicology, film studies, television studies, English, and digital humanities. These innovative contributions investigate the afterlives of a novel taught in a disparate array of courses. Frankenstein disturbs and transcends boundaries, be they political, ethical, theological, aesthetic, and not least of media, ensuring its vibrant presence in contemporary popular culture. Transmedia Creatures highlights how cultural content is redistributed through multiple media forms and modes of production, including user-generated ones from below, that often appear synchronously and dismantle and renew established readings of the text while at the same time incorporating and revitalizing aspects that have always been central to it. The authors engage with concepts, value systems, and aesthetic/moral categories among them: the family, horror, monstrosity, diversity, education, risk, technology, the body, from a variety of contemporary approaches and highly original perspectives, which yields new connections. Ultimately, Frankenstein, as evidenced by this collection, is paradoxically enriched by the heteroglossia of preconceptions, misreadings, and overreadings that attend it, and that reveal the complex interweaving of perceptions and responses it generates. Published by Bucknell University Press. Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press.

Strong Opinions Chris Danta, Sue Kossew, Julian Murphet, 2011-07-14. This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority. Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions, such as the nature of literary realism, the authority of the author, and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting, by consciously revealing the literary/theoretical seams of his work. Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee's work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism, but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary. The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee's most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee's decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee's direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee's explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life

Contemporary Australian Literature Nicholas Birns, 2015-12-01 Australia has been seen as a land of both punishment and refuge Australian literature has explored these controlling alternatives and vividly rendered the landscape on which they transpire Twentieth century writers left Australia to see the world now Australia's distance no longer provides sanctuary But today the global perspective has arrived with a vengeance In Contemporary Australian Literature A World Not Yet Dead Nicholas Birns tells the story of how novelists poets and critics from Patrick White to Hannah Kent from Alexis Wright to Christos Tsiolkas responded to this condition With rancour concern and idealism modern Australian literature conveys a tragic sense of the past yet an abiding vision of the way forward Birns paints a vivid picture of a rich Australian literary voice one not lost to the churning of global markets but in fact given new life by it Contrary to the despairing of the critics Australian literary identity continues to flourish And as Birns finds it is not one thing but many In this remarkable bold and fearless book Nicholas Birns contests how literary cultures are read how they are constituted and what they stand for In examining the nature of the barriers between public and private utterance and looking outside the absurdity of the rules of genre Birns has produced a redemptive analysis that leaves hope for revivifying a world not yet dead
