

The background of the cover is a close-up photograph of a fountain pen lying diagonally across a document. The document is filled with dense, handwritten text in cursive script, which is slightly out of focus. The lighting is dramatic, with a strong light source from the upper left creating a bright, warm glow on the left side of the image and casting long, dark shadows towards the right. The pen is a dark, polished metal, and its nib is visible. The overall mood is intellectual and scholarly.

Sreedhar, 2023-07-11 The seventeenth and eighteenth centuries are arguably the most important period in philosophy's history given that they set a new and broad foundation for subsequent philosophical thought Over the last decade however discontent among instructors has grown with coursebooks unwavering focus on the era's seven most well known philosophers all of them white and male and on their exclusively metaphysical and epistemological concerns While few dispute the centrality of these figures and the questions they raised the modern era also included essential contributions from women like Margaret Cavendish Elisabeth of Bohemia Mary Wollstonecraft and milie Du Ch telet as well as important non white thinkers such as Anton Wilhelm Amo Julien Raimond and Ottobah Cugoana At the same time there has been increasing recognition that moral and political philosophy philosophy of the natural world and philosophy of race also vibrant areas of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries need to be better integrated with the standard coverage of metaphysics and epistemology The second edition of A New Modern Philosophy The Inclusive Anthology of Primary Sources addresses in one volume these valid criticisms Weaving together multiple voices and all of the era's vibrant areas of debate this volume sets a new agenda for studying modern philosophy It includes a wide range of readings from 36 thinkers integrating essential works from all of the canonical writers along with the previously neglected philosophers Editors Gwendolyn Marshall and Susanne Sreedhar provide an introduction for each author that sets the thinker in his or her time period as well as in the longer debates to which the thinker contributed Study questions and
