Modernism A Guide To European Literature 1890 1930 Penguin Literary Criticism:

Modernism Malcolm Bradbury, James McFarlane, 1991 The period 1890 1930 produced literature that still feels contemporary and few movements can boast such an international wealth of innovative writers Apollinaire Brecht Joyce Kafka Strindberg Woolf and Yeats among many others This now classic survey explores the ideas the groupings and the social tensions that shaped this transformation as well as the literature itself and identifies the elements of shock and crisis central to Modernist style Appropriately the contributors display a stimulating variety of critical approaches and methods resulting in some of the most exciting and scholarly criticism yet written on Modernism

Why Does Literature Matter? Frank B. Farrell, 2004 Literature matters because it allows for experiences important to the living out of a sophisticated and satisfying human life because other arenas of culture cannot provide them to the same degree and because a relatively small number of texts carry out these functions in so exceptional a manner that we owe it to past and future members of the species to keep such texts alive in our cultural traditions from Chapter One Frank B Farrell defends a rich conception of the space of literature that retains its links to issues of self formation and metaphysics and does not let that space collapse into just another reflection of social space He maintains that recent literary theory has badly misread findings in the philosophy of language and the theory of subjectivity That misreading Farrell says has tended to endorse ways of understanding literature that make one question why it matters at all Farrell here opposes some recent theoretical trends and through a mix of philosophical and literary studies tells us why in his view literature does truly matter Among the writers Farrell discusses are John Ashbery Samuel Beckett Amit Chaudhuri Cormac McCarthy James Merrill Marcel Proust Thomas Pynchon Salman Rushdie W G Sebald and John Updike The philosophers important to his arguments include Donald Davidson Daniel Dennett and Bernard Williams G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Friedrich Nietzsche and Ludwig Wittgenstein play roles as well Among the literary theorists addressed are Stephen Greenblatt Paul de Man and Marjorie Perloff In addition to his close readings of literary philosophical and critical texts Farrell considers cultural studies and postcolonial studies more generally and speculates on the possible contributions of object relations theory in psychology to the study of literature

Owen Barfield's Poetic Philosophy Jeffrey Hipolito, 2024-03-21 The first book to offer an overview at once introductory and comprehensive of the philosophical thought of Owen Barfield sometimes known as the first and last Inkling and as the British Heidegger Beginning by placing Barfield's early poetics in the context of the critical hurly burly of modernist London of the 1920s Owen Barfield's Poetic Philosophy Meaning and Imagination shows how Barfield's subsequent development of a philosophy of history metaphysics and ethics culminates in his development of a poetic cosmology Hipolito situates Barfield's poetic philosophy in relation to his significant contemporaries and predecessors including T S Eliot D H Lawrence I A Richards Jean Paul Sartre Martin Heidegger and Ernst Cassirer bringing to light for the first time many important aspects of Barfield's thought The book concludes with an analysis of the Burgeon trilogy in which Barfield recapitulates the themes and arguments of his poetic philosophy by exemplifying them in three genre defying works of fiction Structured chronologically and giving a systematic examination of Barfield's thought Owen Barfield's Poetic Philosophy paints a much needed picture of a major thinker and poet who was entirely engaged with his times and who remains crucially relevant to our own

Art for Art's Sake & Literary Life Gene H. Bell-Villada, 1998-01-01 Art for Art's Sake and Literary Life is a dynamic history of literary aestheticism from the eighteenth century to academic deconstruction in our own time Gene H Bell Villada examines an enormous range of writings by critics philosophers and writers from Europe Latin America and the United States Uniting all is his conviction that there are concrete social economic political and cultural reasons for the emergence growth diffusion and triumph of l art pour l art over the past two centuries Bell Villada begins by considering how such thinkers as Shaftesbury Kant and Schiller described beauty as a phenomenon to be weighed not in isolation from other aspects of our existence but as part of our general development as human beings He recounts how the original vision of Kant and Schiller was simplified and debased within new cultural political and economic contexts leading to the aesthetic separatism promoted by lyric poets in France Bell Villada then examines how the ideology of Art for Art's Sake took on new forms in Europe and the Americas culminating in present day versions associated with the academicization and ever greater marginalization of literature Artfully combining an exceptional amount of learning with a sharp polemical focus Art for Art's Sake and Literary Life will appeal to a wide range of scholars and general readers for whom literature aesthetics and the relations of culture and society are vitally important matters

The Return of the Soldier Rebecca West, 2010-09-21 The Return of the Soldier tells the story of a shell shocked soldier who returns home from the First World War believing that he is in love with a working class woman from his past rather than married to his aristocratic wife His family and doctor must decide whether to allow him to remain safely in his delusion or to bring him back to reality and return him to the front A brief novel with a seemingly simple plot it is a classic of modernist literature and provides a point of entry into discussions of some of the twentieth century's most enduring themes Appendices include textual variants patriotic and antiwar verse from World War I war journalism by West contemporary paintings and propaganda posters and material on shell shock
