

from A Modest Proposal

A very worthy person, a true lover of his country, and whose virtues I highly esteem, was lately pleased in discoursing on this matter to offer a refinement upon my scheme. He said that many gentlemen of this kingdom, having of late destroyed their deer, he conceived that the want of venison might be well supplied by the bodies of young lads and maidens, not exceeding fourteen years of age nor under twelve, so great a number of both sexes in every county being now ready to starve for want of work and service; and these to be disposed of by their parents, if alive, or otherwise by their nearest relations. But with due deference to so excellent a friend and so deserving a patriot, I cannot be altogether in his sentiments; for as to the males, my American acquaintance assured me from frequent experience that their flesh was generally tough and lean, like that of our schoolboys, by continual exercise, and their taste disagreeable; and to fatten them would not answer the charge. Then as to the females, it would, I think with humble submission, be a loss to the public, because they soon would become breeders themselves; and besides, it is not improbable that some scrupulous people might be apt to censure such a practice (although indeed very unjustly) as a little bordering upon cruelty; which, I confess, hath always been with me the strongest objection against any project, how well soever intended.

1.What suggestion does the “worthy person” offer in refining the speaker’s scheme?

- A) Using children between 12 and 14 years old as a replacement for venison
- B) Selling children under one year old for food
- C) Training young children to work in farms
- D) Sending children to America for a better life

2.In paragraph above, the speaker rejects the “refinement” of his proposal for each of the following reasons EXCEPT

- a. the meat would be too tough to enjoy
- b. there would result a loss of able-bodied workers
- c. the cost of fattening teenagers would be prohibitive
- d. the practice would bring charges of cruelty
- e. there would result a loss of breeders
