Non-Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez, Michele Shaul, 2023-12-06 Non Normative Sexualities in US Latinx and Latin American Literature Through a Capitalist Lens studies how Latin American and Latinx authors represent non normative sexualities through a capitalist lens In our society heterosexuality manifests as privilege and has been normalized to such an extent that any sexuality that is perceived as different from the dominant cis gendered heteropatriarchal norm is considered deviant Non normative

sexualities continue to be viewed by society as detrimental to the health of the nation. Consequently, how one is perceived by the dominant culture continues to limit one's ability to thrive. Each chapter serves to analyze how one's perceived gender identity or sexuality can block access to economic opportunity. Queer, trans, spatial, and intersectional theories form the base of the literary analyses. One of the contributors' goals is to present capitalism as it is intersectionally present in life, identity, and society. The authors studied in this collection come from the USA, Puerto Rico, Mexico, and the Southern Cone of Latin America.

The Rest of My Story Hope Hartford, 2023-08-31 The winds of change rush into the innocent world of six-year-old Lydia when her mother, Ettie, marries a man with a hidden agenda. The scoundrel Chip soon begins grooming Lydia to satisfy his twisted sexual desires. Lydia's naivety combined with the subtlety of Chip's advances keeps young Lydia unaware of the mistreatment she is suffering at the hands of her own stepfather. The abuse continues in secret for nine long years. When a young man from church asks sixteen-year-old Lydia to be his girlfriend, she agrees. Chip's subsequent jealousy provokes him into fits of rage. Ettie questions her daughter about why Chip may be targeting her with his anger and is shocked to hear Lydia's response. Tackling her overwhelming fears that Chip will intercept them on the way to the airport, Ettie flees to safety with Lydia and her two brothers. Family and friends support Ettie and Lydia as they deal with the aftermath of abuse and betrayal. Although Lydia meets regularly with a therapist who specializes in helping sexual abuse victims, she struggles with her identity as a victim. Hiding behind a mask of happiness is Lydia's way to cope with the vortex of pain swirling in her heart. Can God's love break through the pain to write hope and healing into the rest of her story?

Landscapes of Christianity James S. Bielo, Amos S. Ron, 2022-09-22 How do Christians make relationships with land central to their faith? How have the realities of materiality, geography, and ecology shaped Christian territories of belonging and theologies of territory? What social, economic, political conditions surround exchanges between religion and nature? This book explores how Christianity intersects with nature to create unique religious landscapes. Case studies range from the Mormon Trail across the USA, completed by thousands every year, to the Catholic devotional cult of and shrine to St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina. Contributors examine the entangled forms of agency between nature and culture that are at work as Christians produce, consume, experience, imagine, inhabit, manage, and struggle over formations of land. Focusing on Christian engagements with land forms in the early 21st century, this book advances the spatial turn in the study of religion, contributes to the anthropology of religion, and the study of global Christianities, as well as our understanding of the relationship between Christianity, space, and place.
