Near To The Wild Heart Clarice Lispector:

Near to the Wild Heart Clarice Lispector, 2012-06-13 This new translation of Clarice Lispector's sensational first book tells the story of a middle class woman's life from childhood through an unhappy marriage and its dissolution to transcendence. Near to the Wild Heart published in Rio de Janeiro in 1943 introduced Brazil to what one writer called Hurricane Clarice, a twenty-three year old girl who wrote her first book in a tiny rented room and then baptized it with a title taken from Joyce. He was alone, unheeded, near to the wild heart of life. The book was an unprecedented sensation, the discovery of a genius. Narrative epiphanies and interior monologue frame the life of Joana from her middle class childhood through her unhappy marriage and its dissolution to transcendence when she proclaims, "I shall arise as strong and comely as a young colt."

Near to the Wild Heart Clarice Lispector, 1990 Near to the Wild Heart published in Rio de Janeiro in 1943 introduced Brazil to what one writer called Hurricane Clarice, a twenty-three year old girl who wrote her first book in a tiny rented room and then baptized it with a title taken from Joyce. He was alone, unheeded, near to the wild heart of life. The book was an unprecedented sensation, the discovery of a genius. Narrative epiphanies and interior monologue frame the life of Joana from her middle class childhood through her unhappy marriage and its dissolution to transcendence when she proclaims, "I shall arise as strong and comely as a young colt."

Closer to the Wild Heart Cláudia Pazos Alonso, Claire Elizabeth Williams, 2002 The Brazilian author Clarice Lispector 1920-1977 is arguably Latin America's most celebrated female writer. Yet her prose has remained tantalisingly elusive, resisting any facile appropriation and lending itself to be read in a variety of contexts. Lispector's enigmatic yet luminous writings warrant fresh, multi-disciplinary readings. Here twelve distinguished international scholars discuss the modernity pulsating throughout Lispector's work, examining not only her unconventional novels and famous short stories but also her chronicles and children's books in order to reassess her groundbreaking exploration of the fluid categories of gender and genre, her hybrid textualisations of time, self and nation.

Wild Solveig Bøe, Hege Charlotte Faber, Eivind Kasa, 2022-10-20 In this interdisciplinary work, philosophers from different specialisms connect with the notion of the wild today and interrogate how it is mediated through the culture of the Anthropocene. They make use of empirical material like specific artworks, films and other cultural works related to the term wild to consider the aesthetic experience of nature, focusing on the untamed, the boundless, the unwieldy or the unpredictable. In other words, aspects of nature that are mediated by culture. This book maps out the wide range of ways in which we experience the wildness of nature aesthetically, relating both to immediate experience as well as to experience mediated through cultural expression. A variety of subjects are relevant in this context, including aesthetics, art history, theology, human geography, film studies and architecture. A theme that is pursued throughout the book is the wild in connection with ecology and its experience of nature as both a constructive and destructive force.

The Complete Stories Clarice Lispector, 2015-08-04 Clarice Lispector's Complete Stories 85 in all are an epiphany among the important books of this or any year The recent publication by New Directions of five Lispector novels revealed to legions of new readers her darkness and dazzle Now for the first time in English are all the stories that made her a Brazilian legend from teenagers coming into awareness of their sexual and artistic powers to humdrum housewives whose lives are shattered by unexpected epiphanies to old people who don't know what to do with themselves Clarice's stories take us through their lives and ours From one of the greatest modern writers these stories gathered from the nine collections published during her lifetime follow an unbroken time line of success as a writer from her adolescence to her death bed How Close Reading Made Us Yael

Segalovitz,2024-09-01 Shows how the method of close reading traveled from the United States to Brazil and Israel revealing its profound impact on global modernisms and reframing the lasting significance of New Criticism Does reading shape who we are What happens to the relationship between reading and subject formation as methods of interpretation travel globally Yael Segalovitz probes these questions by tracing the transnational journey of the New Critical practice of close reading from the United States to Brazil and Israel in the mid twentieth century Challenging the traditional view of New Criticism as a purely aesthetic project Segalovitz illustrates its underlying pedagogical objective to cultivate close readers capable of momentarily suspending subjectivity through focused attention How Close Reading Made Us shows that close reading as a technique of the self exerted a far reaching influence on international modernist literary production impacting writers such as Clarice Lispector Yehuda Amichai William Faulkner Jo o Guimar es Rosa and A B Yehoshua To appreciate close reading's enduring vitality in literary studies and effectively adapt this method to the present Segalovitz argues we must comprehend its many legacies beyond the confines of the Anglophone tradition A Breath of Life Clarice Lispector,2012-06-13 A mystical mediation on creation and death in which a man a thinly disguised Clarice Lispector infuses the breath of life into his creation and forms a dialogue between the god-like author and the speaking breathing dying creature herself Angela Pralini P 4 of cover New Voices on Women in the History of Philosophy Clara Carus,2024-08-23 This book promotes entirely new insights into women's contributions to the history of philosophy and boasts papers spanning the centuries from Antigone until twentieth century phenomenology covering fields from logic to mysticism stretching from Brazil to Early Modern Europe The book is of interest for all scholars and students of the history of philosophy but especially for those who are interested in women philosophers and in new narratives in the history of philosophy The book is representative of the immense scope of academic discussion women were involved in over the centuries as well as their varying styles and methods It features papers in logic and in mysticism presents papers on female authors in Antiquity and in the twenty first century and it includes papers on phenomenology and analytic philosophy The chapters consider philosophical positions in literature and drama in letters and in classical philosophical treatises ensuring this book contributes significantly to research on the individual women authors who are all to date still understudied figures Lacan and Other Heresies Linda

Melbourne and the Belgian analyst Christian Fierens displaying the ongoing interrogation by the School of Lacanian psychoanalysis into its history theories and practices Within the framework of Lacan's interventions in Freudian psychoanalysis the book in particular highlights Lacan's inventions in theoretical discourse and clinical practice including the no sexual relation the discursive structures of language the school the cartel and the pass Theoretical shibboleths such as the Oedipus complex are questioned while the historical writings of Sabina Spielrein are read and interpreted anew Chapters also engage with the psychoanalysis of children the questions posed by the psychoses to psychoanalysis and the intersection of creativity and the arts in new and original ways Bringing together a range of expert contributions this text will be an illuminating resource for scholars and practitioners of psychoanalysis

Time in Exile Marcia Sá Cavalcante

Schuback, 2020-03-01 Proposes a theoretically rich treatment of temporality within exile as gerundive time This book is a philosophical reflection on the experience of time from within exile Its focus on temporality is unique as most literature on exile focuses on the experience of space as exile involves dislocation and moods of nostalgia and utopia Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback proposes that in exile time is experienced neither as longing back to the lost past nor as wanting a future to come but rather as a present without anchors or supports She articulates this present as a gerundive mode in which the one who is in exile discovers herself simply being exposed to the uncanny experience of having lost the past and not having a future To explore this she establishes a conversation among three authors whose work has exemplified this sense of gerundive time the German philosopher Martin Heidegger the French writer and essayist Maurice Blanchot and the Brazilian writer Clarice Lispector The book does not aim to discuss how these authors understand the relation between time and exile but presents a conversation with them in relation to this question that reflects new aspects in their work Attempting to think and express this difficult sense of time from within exile Time in Exile engages with the relation between thought and language and between philosophy and literature Departing from concrete existential questions S Cavalcante Schuback reveals new philosophical and theoretical modes to understand what it means to be present in times of exile It is very rare that one can find in philosophy a book that has been written neither as a commentary nor as an exegesis of the authors in question but rather as an original and thought provoking reflection in which the author is the main philosophical voice in the book Mar a del Rosario Acosta Lopez coeditor of Aesthetic Reason and Imaginative Freedom Friedrich Schiller and Philosophy

Passion, Memory and Identity Marjorie Agosin, 1999-05 A lively analysis of the major contribution of Jewish women writers in Latin America

Ambiguity and Gender in the New Novel of Brazil and Spanish America Judith A. Payne, Earl E. Fitz, 1993-05 In this first book length study to compare the new novels of both Spanish America and Brazil the authors deftly examine the differing perceptions of ambiguity as they apply to questions of gender and the participation of females and males in the establishment of Latin American narrative models Their daring thesis the Brazilian new novel developed a more radical form than its better known Spanish speaking cousin because it had a significantly different approach to the crucial issues of ambiguity and gender and because so many of its major practitioners were women As a wise strategy for assessing the canonical new novels from Latin America the coupling of ambiguity and gender enables Payne and Fitz to discuss how borders literary generic and cultural are maintained challenged or crossed Their conclusions illuminate the contributions of the new novel in terms of experimental structures and narrative techniques as well as the significant roles of voice theme and language Using Jungian theory and a poststructural optic the authors also demonstrate how the Latin American new novel faces such universal subjects as myth time truth and reality Perhaps the most original aspect of their study lies in its analysis of Brazil's strong female tradition Here issues such as alternative visions contrasexuality self consciousness and ontological speculation gain new meaning for the future of the novel in Latin America With its comparative approach and its many bilingual quotations Ambiguity and Gender in the New Novel of Brazil and Spanish America offers an engaging picture of the marked differences between the literary traditions of Portuguese speaking and Spanish speaking America and thus new insights into the distinctive mindsets of these linguistic cultures

Teaching the Latin American Boom Lucille Kerr,Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola,2015-09-01 In the decade from the early 1960s to the early 1970s Latin American authors found themselves writing for a new audience in both Latin America and Spain and in an ideologically charged climate as the Cold War found another focus in the Cuban Revolution The writers who emerged in this energized cultural moment among others Julio Cortázar Argentina Guillermo Cabrera Infante Cuba José Donoso Chile Carlos Fuentes Mexico Gabriel García Márquez Colombia Manuel Puig Argentina and Mario Varas Llosa Peru experimented with narrative forms that sometimes bore a vexed relation to the changing political situations of Latin America This volume provides a wide range of options for teaching the complexities of the Boom explores the influence of Boom works and authors presents different frameworks for thinking about the Boom proposes ways to approach it in the classroom and provides resources for selecting materials for courses

The Woman in Latin American and Spanish Literature Eva Paulino Bueno,María Claudia André,2014-01-10 Noted scholars of Latin American and Spanish literature here explore the literary history of Latin America through the representation of iconic female characters Focusing both on canonical novels and on works virtually unknown outside their original countries the essays discuss the important ways in which these characters represent nature history race and sex the effects of globalization and the unknowable other They examine how both male and female writers portray Latin American women reinterpreting the dynamics between the genders across boundaries and historical periods Drawing on recent theories in literary criticism gender and Latin American studies these essays illuminate the women characters as conduits for the appreciation of their countries and cultures

Gender Violence in Twenty-first-century Latin American Women's Writing Maria Encarnacion Lopez,Stephen M. Hart,2022 How do contemporary female authors in Latin America tackle gender violence in their writings This book analyses the portrayal of violence against women in the works of ten contemporary Latin American female authors Alejandra Jaramillo Morales Laura Restrepo Ena Lucia Portela Wendy Guerra Selva Almada Claudia Pineiro Diamela Eltit Carla Guelfenbein Lydia Cacho and Fernanda Melchor Governments in Latin America have routinely failed to protect women from abuse threats censorship repressive policies on reproduction rights forced displacement sex trafficking disappearances and femicides and this book beats a new path through these burning issues by drawing on the knowledges encapsulated by sociology as much as the visions articulated by literature Through an exploration of works published in the twenty first century by women writers from

Argentina Chile Colombia Cuba and Mexico this volume reconceptualises positions of privilege and power in the region and provides new readings about the meaning of gender sexuality violence and the female body in contemporary Latin America The aim of this book is to raise awareness of the daily threat of violence against women in Latin America underline the importance of the voice of Latin American women within that daily struggle and encourage governments organisations and institutions in Latin America and the Caribbean to take gender violence seriously and fight to secure peace and social equality for all women in the modern world

Jewish Science Fiction and Fantasy of the 1960s and 70s Valerie Estelle Frankel, 2024-09-05 Following the Holocaust American literature experienced a resurgence of Jewish themes characters and contributions This book focuses on the genres of science fiction and fantasy of the post Holocaust period and argues that while the era was colored by grief it also offered a renaissance of Jewish creative expression The author provides an overview of texts beginning with the rise of Jewish speculative fiction anthologies in science fiction and fantasy and delving into emerging subgenres such as alternate history post apocalyptic cold war second wave feminism counterculture parodies new wave postmodernism and cyberpunk to illustrate how Jewish culture made its mark on popular culture The book also covers the Silver Age and Bronze Age of comics which saw Stan Lee Jack Kirby Julius Schwartz and Marv Wolfman form new superhero teams to battle prejudice and draws parallels with some of the most impactful shows made by Jewish creators including Star Trek Twilight Zone and Doctor Who The analysis also looks beyond the American context to include texts from Germany the Soviet Union Brazil and Israel
