Internationalization in Vocational Education and Training Ly Thi Tran, Kate Dempsey, 2017-01-11 This edited book addresses a range of aspects of internationalization in vocational education and training VET in different countries It considers the impact of internationalization and student mobility on VET at the sectoral institutional and individual levels as the sector emerges as a key tool for social and structural change in developing nations and as a flexible and entrepreneurial means of growth in developed nations The book explores not only the effects of the neo liberal market principle underpinning VET practices and reforms but importantly considers internationalization as a powerful force for change in vocational education and training As the first volume in the world that examines internationalization practices in VET the book provides VET and international education policymakers practitioners researchers and educators with both conceptual knowledge and practical insights into the implementation of internationalization in VET

Art Therapy Education Tami Yaguri, Dalia Merari, 2021-10-19 Art and artmaking are at the basis of art therapy as a healing practice Teachers of art therapy emphasize the role of the creative process and the symbolic use of materials in the training of art therapy students This volume suggests an innovative research approach that examines different art therapy teaching and training practices and studies them as parts of one picture

Our Future in Nature: Edmund Barrow, 2019-05-21 Who has not felt a sense of awe silence stillness and presence in an ancient woodland or forest or in front of a sacred tree Humankind has held trees and woodlands in awe and reverence since the dawn of time We depend on nature for the air we breathe the water we drink and the services nature provides This book is about the importance of sacred trees and groves in our stress filled and increasingly urban world Note that over 50 percent of the world is urban Sacred trees and sacred groves transcend race color and creed They are found all over our fragile planet Where there is a tree there is a sacred tree This book will appeal to religious and spiritual traditions as well as to conservation and environmental movements It will offer its reader means to take better care of our only home planet Earth Often undervalued unrecognized or disrespected sacred trees and groves are conserved against mind boggling pressures For example there is a sacred fig tree between two shops in one of the main streets in Hanoi Vietnam There is also a one hectare sacred grove in the center of Kumasi a city of 2.5 million people in Ghana the over 150 000 sacred groves in India and the sacred hill forests of every village in Yunnan South China Sacred trees and groves often conserve unique biodiversity which can help create or recreate connectivity in the landscape As such sacred trees and groves may be relic survivors of bygone ages and are an important resource for restoring degraded natural landscapes This book offers ways for those involved with religion and spirituality and for those working with conservation and land use to jointly engage in repairing the damage we have done to Earth
