Congratulations! Evan Skulander - 100 Games

Evan Skulander, or more commonly known as 'Cyclone Sku', Evan's tenure at the club dates back to 2014, with his mullet only dating back to 2018. Evan is one of the last remaining members of the 'Grilly Colts', and since progressing from the colts' team, Evan has been an integral component in our senior side for many years.

Evan is a lockdown back who wears his heart on his sleeve, or more notably wears the opposition's face on his sleeve (including Fokker). His ability to attack every ball with intent & aggression is something that most admire. You definitely stand a little taller playing alongside Evan.

Well done on 100 games with the club. It is a tribute to your journey, dedication & loyalty. We wish you the very best as you prepare to go to war with Mayne this weekend.

This weekends fixtures comprised the Friday Night Legends held by Collingwood Park, while the QFA men's and QFLW women's both travelled across the river to play the old enemy Coorparua on a day they celebrated the 20 years since our Men's grand final meeting.
