An intelligence which has the ability to understand own emotions as well as others. The value of this form of intelligence is tremendous when building mental strength. Did you know that people with mental toughness all have common habits? Some of these habits include staying calm under pressure, not wasting time on things that cannot be controlled, trying to change themselves, not other people, not wasting time on jealousy, not spending time thinking about what others think of them, being thankful for what they have, avoiding criticizing others and situations, and living in the present and not in the past. Did you know that you should set SMART goals? SMART goals which are 1 Specific, 2 Measurable, 3 Attainable, 4 Relevant, and 5 Time Bound. It is important that goals meet all of these criteria. This is done through practice, steadily increasing the amount of pressure as you become acclimated to it, surrounding yourself with people who are mentally strong, and more. Everyone would love to become mentally stronger, but most people never thought about why mental strength is necessary and how it should be developed. Mental strength can be developed from a variety of techniques, many of which are detailed throughout this book.
