Islamic State's Online Activity and Responses Maura Conway, Stuart Macdonald, 2020-06-09 Islamic State's Online Activity and Responses provides a unique examination of Islamic State's online activity at the peak of its golden age between 2014 and 2017 and evaluates some of the principal responses to this phenomenon Featuring contributions from experts across a range of disciplines the volume examines a variety of aspects of IS's online activity including their strategic objectives the content and nature of their magazines and videos and their online targeting of females and depiction of children It also details and analyses responses to IS's online activity from content moderation and account suspensions to informal counter messaging and disrupting terrorist financing and explores the possible impact of technological developments such as decentralised and peer to peer networks going forward Platforms discussed include dedicated jihadi forums major social media sites such as Facebook Twitter and YouTube and newer services including Twister Islamic State's Online Activity and Responses is essential reading for researchers students policymakers and all those interested in the contemporary challenges posed by online terrorist propaganda and radicalisation The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Studies in Conflict Terrorism Terrorist Recruitment, Propaganda and Branding Anna Kruglova, 2022-08-05 This book analyses the marketing techniques that terrorist organisations employ to encourage people to adopt their ideology and become devoted supporters The book's central thesis is that due to the development of digital technologies and social media terrorist groups are employing innovative marketing techniques and advertising strategies to foster an emotional connection with their audiences particularly those in younger demographics By conducting thematic and narrative analyses of Islamic State of Iraq and Syria ISIS propagandist magazines as well as looking at the group's online communities the book demonstrates that terrorist groups behave as commercial brands by establishing an emotional connection with their potential recruits Specifically groups and their potential supporters follow the logic of emotional choice The book emphasizes that while ISIS became the first group that discovered and benefited from the power of marketing it did not have a supernatural power and thus it is possible to find a response to it which is particularly important now The book eventually poses a question about whether terrorism has become the product of marketing in the same way as any mainstream consumer product is and asks what can we do to battle the appeal of marketing savvy terrorist groups This book will be of interest to students of terrorism studies radicalisation and propaganda communication and security studies Terrorism in Perspective Sue Mahan, Pamala L. Griset, 2008 Introduction What is terrorism History of terrorism International terrorism Terrorist tactics around the globe Homegrown terrorism in the United States Media coverage of terrorism Women terrorists Technology and terrorism Counterterrorism Weaponized Words Kurt Braddock, 2020-04-16 Strengthen your understanding of the persuasive mechanisms used by terrorist groups and how they are effective in order to defeat them Weaponized Words applies existing theories of persuasion to domains unique to this digital era such as social media YouTube websites and message boards to name but a few Terrorists deploy a range of communication methods and harness reliable communication theories to create strategic messages that persuade peaceful individuals to join their groups and engage in violence While explaining how they accomplish this the book lays out a blueprint for developing counter messages perfectly designed to conquer such violent extremism and terrorism Using this basis in persuasion theory a socio scientific approach is generated to fight terrorist propaganda and the damage it causes International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities, Media - Migration - Integration Rainer Geißler, Horst Pöttker, 2015-09-15 Following economists and scientists politicians of various European countries have realized that a modern society with a declining birthrate is in need of immigrants What can journalists contribute in order to enable migrants to feel at home in their receiving country What can be missed and ruined by journalists and media with regard to the integration of ethnic minorities Scholars from Austria Canada France Germany Russia Switzerland The Netherlands and the U S present their findings on the matter of media integration of migrants Can
