100 Movie Posters The Essential Collection:

100 Movie Posters Tony Nourmand, 2013 World vintage movie poster expert Tony Nourmand shares his personal selection of the 100 essential movie posters of all time Features stunning images from designers such as Saul Bass Paul Rand and Bill Gold and classic movie titles like Man With the Golden Arm Breakfast at Tiffanys Goldfinger and Metropolis which holds the world record for the most expensive poster ever sold at 690 000 in a sale brokered by Tony in 2005 Beautiful and diverse imagery from around the world with accompanying photographs and text 100 Essential Indian Films Rohit K. Dasgupta, Sangeeta Datta, 2018-12-15 Although the motion picture industry in India is one of the oldest and largest in the world with literally thousands of productions released each year films from that country have not been as well received as those from other countries Known for their impressive musical numbers melodramatic plots and nationally beloved stars Indian films have long been ignored by the West but are now at the forefront of cinema studies With the prolific number of films available it can be difficult to know what to watch In 100 Essential Indian Films Rohit K Dasgupta and Sangeeta Datta identify and discuss significant works produced since the 1930s Examining the output of different regional film industries throughout India this volume offers a balance of box office blockbusters critical successes and less recognized cult classics From early films by Satyajit Ray to contemporary classics such as Salaam Bombay and Lagaan each entry includes comprehensive details about the film and situates the work in the context and history of the Indian canon In addition to these notable productions this book also examines key film directors and the work of major film stars in the industry While many studies of Indian films focus on a single language s contributions this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive guide to productions from across the country in various languages including Hindi Bengali Tamil Malayalam Assamese Punjabi Marathi and English 100 Essential Indian Films is an engaging volume that will appeal to both cinema scholars and those looking for an introduction to a vital component of world cinema Film Posters of the 90s Tony Nourmand, Graham Marsh, 2005 Whatever your taste in movies the filmmakers of the 1990s had it covered On the one hand the big studios took advantage of the ever increasing sophistication of computer generated imagery to produce spectacular mega budget event movies like Titanic The Matrix and Mission Impossible On the other hand a new generation of independents like Tarantino and the Coen brothers was winning its spurs with low tech and often low budget productions such as Reservoir Dogs and The Big Lebowski Hollywood may have become besotted by all things digital but print on paper in the form of the poster remained one of the most important means of promoting movies of all kinds and the poster artists of the 90s proved they could still produce striking and alluring images This book reproduces the pick of the decade Westerns Gary R. Edgerton, 2013-09-13 For nearly two centuries Americans have embraced the Western like no other artistic genre Creators and consumers alike have utilized this story form in literature painting film radio and television to explore questions of national identity and purpose Westerns The Essential Collection comprises the Journal of Popular Film and Television s rich and longstanding legacy of scholarship on Westerns with a new special issue devoted exclusively to the genre This collection examines and analyzes the evolution and significance of the screen Western from its earliest beginnings to its current global reach and relevance in the 21st century Westerns The Essential Collection addresses the rise fall and durability of the genre and examines its preoccupation with multicultural matters in its organizational structure Containing eighteen essays published between 1972 and 2011 this seminal work is divided into six sections covering Silent Westerns Classic Westerns Race and Westerns Gender and Westerns Revisionist Westerns and Westerns in Global Context A wide range of international contributors offer original critical perspectives on the intricate relationship between American culture and Western films and television series Westerns The Essential Collection places the genre squarely within the broader aesthetic socio historical cultural and political dimensions of life in the United States as well as internationally where the Western has been reinvigorated and reinvented many times This groundbreaking anthology illustrates how Western films and television series have been used to define the present and discover the future by looking backwards at America s imagined past

Distant Viewing Taylor Arnold, Lauren Tilton, 2023-10-17 A new theory and methodology for the application of computer vision methods to the computational analysis of collected digitized visual materials called distant viewing Distant Viewing Computational Exploration of Digital Images presents a new theory and methodology for the computational analysis of digital images offering a lively constructive critique of computer vision that you can actually use What does it mean to say that computer vision understands visual inputs Annotations never capture a whole image The way digital images convey information requires what researchers Taylor Arnold and Lauren Tilton call distant viewing a play on the well known term distant reading from computational literary analysis Recognizing computer vision s limitations Arnold and Tilton s spirited examination makes the technical exciting by applying distant viewing to the sitcoms Bewitched and I Dream of Jeannie movie posters and other popular forms of advertising and Dorothea Lange s photography In the tradition of visual culture studies and computer vision Distant Viewing s interdisciplinary perspective encompasses film and media studies visual semiotics and the sciences to create a playful accessible guide for an international audience working in digital humanities data science media studies and visual culture studies
