Who Is This Allah? G.J.O. Moshay, 2008 Is Allah the God of the Bible In any of the one hundred and fifty sects and sub sects of Islam the common denominator is Allah Who is this Allah Much has been written on the religion of Islam and its prophet but not much is said about the god of the religion One reason is the assumption that the god of Islam and the God of Christianity are one and the same When on September 11 2001 some Muslims carried out a well organized attack destroying the The World Trade Center and damaging the Pentagon a letter of last instruction from the leaders of the terrorist network was discovered Written in Arabic it says their mission was a service to God Actually this was a mistranslation The word the terrorists used is not the Arabic word for God but Allah The Arabic word for God is Ilah So they believed they were working for Allah not God Who is this Allah Were these terrorists extremists or were they serving the Allah of the Qur'an The war against terrorism goes beyond overthrowing the Taliban regime in Afghanistan or even killing Osama bin Laden The war on terror may not be won unless we understand the Allah the terrorists say inspires them Not all Muslims are terrorists But the terrorists letter which is quoted fully in chapter three gives great insight into the Islamic religion and the motivation for religious terrorism in the world Why have we shied away from probing the identity of the Allah of Islam Possibly it is because if Allah is not the God of the Bible it would force us to face many ugly facts For example if Allah is the true God and the Qur' an Islam's sacred book is true then Christians can be sure they are lost no matter how zealous they may be The reverse would also be true It is necessary therefore to provide sufficient information to enable you to determine your own verdict and answer the question Who is this Allah This book will do that

Countless Blessings Barbara M. Cooper, 2019-07-01 A study of pregnancy and childbirth customs in Niger and how it has both a high fertility rate and high rates of maternal and infant mortality How do women in Niger experience pregnancy and childbirth differently from women in the United States or Europe Barbara M Cooper sets out to understand childbirth in a country with the world's highest fertility rate and an alarmingly high rate of maternal and infant mortality Cooper shows how the environment slavery and abolition French military rule and the rapid expansion of Islam have all influenced childbirth and fertility in Niger from the nineteenth century to the present day She sketches a landscape where fear of infertility generates intense competition between communities ethnicities and co wives and creates a culture where concerns about infertility dominate concerns about overpopulation where illegitimate children are rejected and where the education of girls is sacrificed in the name of avoiding shame Given a medical system poorly adapted to women's needs a precarious economy and a political context where it is impossible to address sexuality openly Cooper discovers that it is little wonder that pregnancy and birth are a woman's greatest pride as well as a source of grave danger Beautifully written insightful and full of empathy A must read for anyone seeking to understand the damaging consequences of neglecting women's and infants health Johanna Schoen author of Abortion after Roe Few experiences are more potent than reproduction Countless Blessings brilliantly unwinds the full import of this potency tracing a history of demography bodily peril parental joy and social religious and political meaning Cooper's tremendous skill and creativity as a scholar enable us to see the political stakes of reproduction even as they are grounded in the intimacies of embodied experience Julie Livingston author of Self Devouring Growth A Planetary Parable as Told from Southern Africa Countless Blessings shows how women in Niger and in West Africa have long navigated the various states of social value personhood spirituality and childbirth and it paints a remarkable picture of how contested and embodied the social and material concerns of childbirth remain for women today Ampson Hagan University of North Carolina Chapel Hill IJAHs
